PhDs With Impact

DOCTORAL DESTINATIONS: Private Sector

Over a 20-year period (1999-2019), approximately 4,000 students graduated from the Ontario Agricultural College's (OAC) graduate programs. The OAC Doctoral Destinations Project documents their career status as of 2019. The private sector includes corporations and companies that are not controlled by the government.

Graduates	Female	Male	International	Domestic
178	41%	59%	31%	69%

Demographics of PhD graduates working in the Private Sector

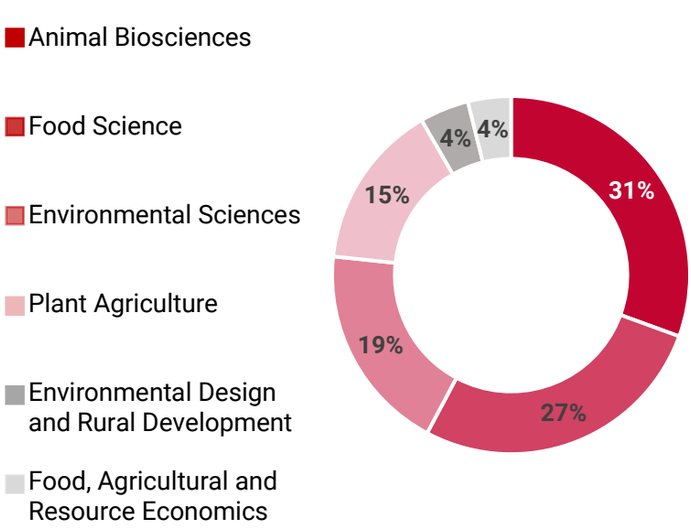
*Due to limitations of available historical data, we regret that non-binary gender classifications are not reported

Sample employers of OAC PhDs in the Private Sector

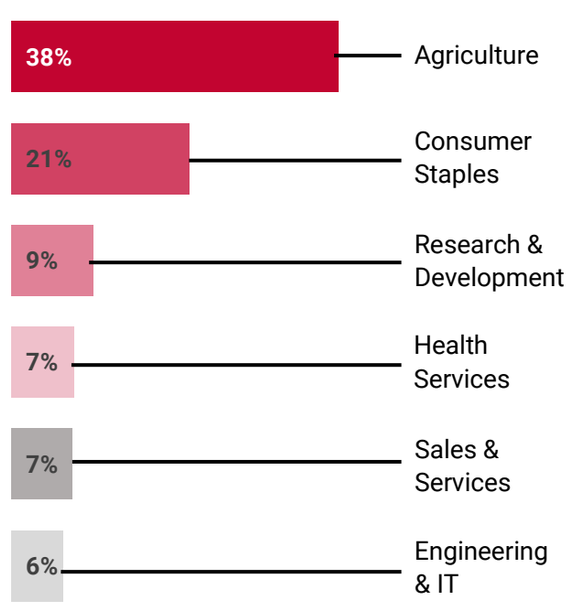
Corteva / BASF Inc. / Nestlé / Syngenta / Cargill / Danone / Hendrix Genetics / Parmalat Canada / PepsiCo / Semex / AbacusBio Limited / Archer Daniels Midland Company / Bayer Crop Science / Canadian Centre for Swine Development / Canadian Dairy Network / Carl Zeiss / EcoMetrix Inc. / Evonik / International Flavours & Fragrances / Maple Leaf Foods Inc / Mars / Stantec / The World Bank / Thermo Fisher Scientific / Zoetis Inc.

Job titles of PhD graduates in the Private Sector in 2018-2019
Shown by proportion across all cohorts.

Academic Unit distribution for the Private Sector



Top six employment categories of PhD graduates in the Private Sector



UNIVERSITY of GUELPH

ONTARIO AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE