

Ontario Graduate Scholarships in Science and Technology (OGSST)*

The Ontario government, in partnership with the private sector, rewards excellence in graduate studies in science and technology through Ontario Graduate Scholarships in Science and Technology which are valued at $5000 per semester.

Full-time Canadian citizens or permanent residents who are registered up to semester six of a master's program and semester fifteen of a doctoral program and who have a first class standing in each of their last two years of study are eligible for consideration.

Students do not apply for these awards; graduate coordinators nominate students each semester on the basis of academic excellence as evidenced by transcripts, research ability or potential, communication and leadership skills. The OGSST is tenable with all other awards up to a total of $10,000 per fiscal year and cannot be held at the same time as an Ontario Graduate Scholarship. It can be held for two years as master's student and
