Bachelor of Arts and Sciences
Learning Contract Form

Three (3) copies of this form are required:

1. Student
2. Supervisor
3. BAS Program Counselling Office

Alternatively, the Learning Contract may also be emailed, with all of the above copied, as long as only uoguelph.ca email addresses are used.

Please print clearly the following information:

Student Name: ___________________________ I.D. # ___________________________

Email Address: ___________________________ Phone: ___________________________

Faculty Advisor ___________________________ Dept. ___________________________

Email Address: ___________________________ Ext: ___________________________

Semester: Fall _____ Winter _____ Summer _____ ASCI Course # ___________________________

Description of Project (explain how this project is interdisciplinary, what you hope to achieve with this project, why you are interested in this project and how it complements your degree program):

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________

Course Outline: Please attach a detailed course outline including specific methods of evaluation, due dates, possible reading list, course expectations, etc. Note: It is the student’s responsibility to create the course outline in collaboration with their faculty advisor.

Approvals:

Faculty Advisor Signature ___________________________ Date ___________________________

BAS PC Chair’s Signature ___________________________ Date ___________________________

Student’s Signature ___________________________ Date ___________________________

DEADLINE: The Learning Contract and accompanying detailed course outline must both be completed and approved no later than the last day of the add period in the semester in which the independent/directed studies will be undertaken.

☐ Please check the box if you are comfortable sharing your project information with other students. Your personal information will not be shared, only the project information.