

Department of Integrative Biology
MONROE LANDON MEMORIAL PRIZE

Applications are now being accepted for the Monroe Landon Memorial Prize.

Preference will be given to a student residing in the region of Haldimand Norfolk. Apply by letter, with a transcript, to the Chair, Department of Integrative Biology by January 31, 2012 indicating experience in the field of botany/conservation.

Students that have completed a minimum of 17.0 credits in Honours Plant Biology or Ecology with a minimum cumulative average of 70% and demonstrates an active interest in the conservation of native species and field research are invited to apply.