ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT REPORT FORM

INSTRUCTIONS

The University of Guelph Academic Misconduct policy applies to both undergraduate and graduate students however the process for investigation differs. When completing this form, determine the degree status of the student being reported and then proceed as described here.

1. Undergraduate Students:

- The course instructor should fill out this form. Make sure to include all supporting documentation listed at the end of this form.
- If you are a teaching assistant and suspect a student has committed academic misconduct, forward your concerns to the course instructor along with any supporting documentation, such as a copy of the student's assignment or examination. You may provide a written report to the course instructor if you so wish.
- The course instructor should forward the completed form and all requested documentation to the chair of the department in which the alleged misconduct occurred.
- The chair of the department should review the documentation to ensure that all information is complete and attach any other information that may aid in the investigation of the complaint.
- Once the department chair has verified that the form is complete, forward the form and accompanying documentation to the dean or designate of the college in which the course is offered.
- The dean or designate will conduct an investigation of the matter based on the allegations set out in the form. Once the dean or designate has investigated the matter, a decision will be made. If the allegation of academic misconduct is confirmed, a penalty will be levied in accordance with the Guidelines for Academic Misconduct.

2. Graduate Students:

- If the alleged misconduct is course related, the course instructor should fill out this form. Make sure to include all supporting documentation listed at the end of this form.
- If the alleged misconduct is research related, the research advisor should fill out this form. Make sure to include all supporting documentation listed at the end of this form.
- The course instructor or research advisor should forward the completed form and all requested documentation to the chair of the department in which the alleged misconduct occurred. The chair of the department should review the documentation to ensure that all information is complete and attach any other information that may aid in the investigation of the complaint.
- Once the department chair has verified that the form is complete, forward a copy of the form and accompanying documentation to both the dean or designate of the college in which the course is offered or research is being conducted and the Dean of Graduate Studies or designate. The dean or designate and the Dean of Graduate Studies or designate will jointly conduct an investigation of the matter based on the allegations set out in the form. Once the deans or designates have investigated the matter, a decision will be made. If the allegation of academic misconduct is confirmed, a penalty will be levied in accordance with the Guidelines for Academic Misconduct.
