The MCB undergraduate student associations, BiocSA, MBGSA & MicroSA, have collectively received an award of distinction in recognition of their dedication to collaboration.

This year, the three clubs worked together as one cohesive unit, rather than as individual clubs. They successfully ran a variety of events, including Student-Professor Socials and the MCB College Royal exhibit.

Collaborative efforts among students and researchers with intersecting interests are often the most rewarding.

Thanks for your good work!