

- Monday, October 18th All day – Keep your eye open for Prof. Gregoy Bedecarrats (Animal Nutrition) as he walks around campus in a giant chicken suit! Make a donation and receive chocolate eggs and a condom.
- All day today and tomorrow*– Prof. Dan Meegan (Political Science) rolls out of bed on the wrong side, and will teach today’s classes in his pyjamas!
- 5:30 – Join Prof. Jack Weiner (Math & Statistics) and his Golden Retriever Callie on a walk around the Arboretum. Jack will donate $1 for every student who joins him and his pup. Meet at the AC parking lot, student donations more than welcome!
- Tuesday, October 19th All day – Prof. Saba Safdar (Psychology) and her students are Daring to explore gender by cross-dressing for the day, or wearing red and black to bring attention to HIV/AIDS.
- 1:00 – 2:30 – ‘Stump the Professor’! Prof. Jacqueline Murray (History) will Dare to answer questions about the history of sex. Find Prof. Murray in MacKinnon Lobby. Stump her and win a gift basket of goodies....
- Wednesday, October 20th 12:30 – 2:00 – Come help Prof. Ian Lubek (Psychology) sell 600 bracelets in 60 minutes! Auction will be held in the Bullring – grab a bracelet with lunch!
- 2:30 – 3:20 – J. P. Lewis and the students of his POLS*1400 class will spend as day of class as though it were 1981 (when the CDC recognized AIDS), using only technology and material available by that year. Lewis has also challenged his students to dress 80s style!
- Thursday, October 21st All day – Out of place? Prof. Cate Dewey (Pop. Medicine) will teach her classes as a widow from rural Western Kenya for the day!
- 10:00 – 11:30 – Prof. Adam Sneyd (Political Science) will auction off the topic for his Oct. 21 class today – highest bidder gets to decide!
- Kick off!* – Prof. Benjamin Bradshaw (Geography) and his students will kick off their Dares! From Oct. 21st until Dec. 1st (World AIDS Day), students are challenged to make a contribution for every illegal download they make. For the same time, Bradshaw will ride his bike to school, contributing $1 for every traffic infraction he makes.

TURNING THE TIDE OF HIV/AIDS IN AFRICA
www.adaretoremember.com

Friday, October 22nd

11:45-12:00 – Come see your President Alastair Summerlee, Provost Maureen Mancuso, VP Academic Serge Desmarais, and VP Research Kevin Hall perform a singing number or two in the UC at lunch!

The whole week

Watch out...Brenda Whiteside will give up coffee for the entirety of this week!

Prof. Kevin James will Dare to exercise 1 hour every day. He is also challenging his students to raise $2/student/seminar for the week...if the goal is achieved, students will nominate their peers to pie Prof. James in the face.

Keep your eye out for...

Denise Mohan Dares her students to dine, as she hosts dinner for friends, family and students at her home on October 23rd.

For more information, or to become involved with the 'A Dare to Remember' campaign on campus (on-going until Dec. 1st), email Nicole Markwick at nmarkwic@uoguelph.ca.

TURNING THE TIDE OF HIV/AIDS IN AFRICA
www.adaretoremember.com