

AWARD OF EXCELLENCE IN HEALTH AND SAFETY

Purpose

This award is for exemplary activity in fostering a culture of health and safety in the workplace at the University of Guelph. This nomination is for individuals, groups or local health and safety committees.

Criteria

The Selection Committee will be looking for demonstrated evidence and specific examples, of leadership in health and safety in the workplace. The criteria used for the selection process will include, but are not limited to:

- A demonstrated dedication to health and safety in the workplace
- The fostering of a culture of health and safety in a department or at a university-wide level
- Contributions made to improve health and safety in the workplace (e.g., actions taken to prevent injuries or illnesses, prevention of unsafe conditions or practices, etc)

Nomination Process: The nomination form should be submitted to the Office of the Vice-President (Finance & Administration) not later than May 31. Each nomination must be signed by three nominators, including one person who is identified as the lead nominator. A nomination submission of no more than 500 words should be attached. The lead nominator is encouraged to elicit a maximum of three letters of support from individuals/sources, either from the nominators themselves or from other individuals. Nominations may come from staff, faculty, students, alumni and retirees of the University.
