Leadership Matters

Inspire an Exceptional Community. The University of Guelph is making a difference addressing some of the world’s most perplexing problems. We are building a better planet through our focus on food, the environment, health, and community.

We are seeking our eighth President and Vice-Chancellor, who will engage the University community in the pursuit of ambitious academic and research goals – a leader with an entrepreneurial spirit, a powerful sense of community, and a profound commitment to social responsibility. Embrace the future while honouring the past, and work with our award-winning faculty, engaged students, dedicated staff, and loyal alumni – all committed to changing lives and improving life.

The University of Guelph is committed to equity in its policies, practices, and programs, supports diversity in its teaching, learning and work environments, and ensures that interest from members of underrepresented groups is seriously considered. All qualified individuals are encouraged to apply.
