Swords, Pens, Armchairs and Sit-Ins: Engaging social transformation from everywhere

9:00 – 9:30 am – Mackinnon 304: Registration and Breakfast

9:30 – 11:10 am – Session 1

Panel #1: Room 304
Mother Earth vs. Father Time: A discussion of the ever-increasing tension between economic growth and sustainability
- Exploring Re-Peasantization: How Agrarian Reform and Agroecology Can Fulfill the Call for Food Sovereignty – Chelsea Masse, University of Guelph
- Food Status and Meal Choice in a Global Market – Samantha Kirton, University of Guelph
- A comparison between capitalist and steady-state systems in their ability to maintain a sustainable society – Mark Shakespear, University of Guelph
- Ego-Village: Utopianism in the Post-Modern Experiment of Maia Earth Village – José Guillermo Sánchez, Trent University
- Exploring Ethnic Boundaries in a Contemporary Context: the Ogoni Then and Now – Stacey Cook, Carleton University

Panel #2: Room 305
Structuring Agency on Campus: A discussion of empowerment, diversity, sustainability, inflated grades and deflated careers
- Reconceptualizing Diversity as an Anti-oppression Framework through Service Learning – Taylor Pratt, Huda Al-Sharafi, Jamie Ouellet, University of Guelph
- Modes of Empowerment and Self-care Strategies: Psychiatric Disability on Canadian Campuses – Loa Gordon, University of Guelph
- Losing the Best and Brightest? The Prospective Cooling out of Academic Career Aspirations – Brittany Etmanski, University of Waterloo
- Two-tiered Hiring Practices and their Impact on Faculty Working Conditions and Student Learning Experiences – Anne-Marie Bresee, University of Guelph
- Food Waste and the Campus as a Living Laboratory – Jaida Regan, University of Guelph

11:25 – 12:25 – Session 2

Panel #3: Room 304
Living with Poverty: A discussion of homelessness, women’s shelters and Feminist Participatory Action Research in Southern Ontario
- Class, Colourblind Intersectionality and Whiteness: Interviews with Economically Disadvantaged White Women within Women’s Shelters – Natalie Adamyk, University of Waterloo
- Pathways to Homelessness – Madeline Porter, Trent University
- Presenting FPAR research without compromise: Staying true to ourselves and others – Rachel Ewan, Laurier U.

Panel #4: Room 305
Biopolitics and Epistemic Imperialism: A discussion of colonial power, knowledge, and the body
- The Biopolitical Genres of Humanism – Ramanpreet Bahra, Wilfrid Laurier University
- The Clash of Epistemologies – Yousr El Sharawy, University of Guelph
- From Foucault to Stoler and Razack: A Historical and Contemporary Analysis of Colonial Power – Helene Bigras-Dutrisac, University of Western Ontario
Panel #5: Room 304
Liquid Modernity for 500: A discussion of Big Data, job flexicurity, and the US Presidential Election
- Big Data, Little Certainty: Total Archive and the New Circuits of Power & Resistance - Brian Schram, University of Waterloo
- Another Look at Flexicurity: Outcomes and Portability - Oldrich Bubak, McMaster University
- Empowering or Pandering? Exploring Identity in the Political Debate - Sameha Alghamdi, York University

Panel #6: Room 305
Mobilizing Media: The cyber-playground, oppositional counter-publics, and cultural production
- The Online Culture of Cyberbullying – Molly Harper, University of Windsor
- Social Media Disclosures of Sexual Violence: Mobilizing Activism and Defining the Battleground of Oppositional Counter-Publics - Chris Worden, University of Guelph
- A Retrospective Analysis of the Career Trajectories of Film Directors - Justin Doran, University of Guelph

---

Panel #7: Room 304
Intergenerational Solidarity: Anti-racist feminism, grassroots folk-medicine, and dual cultural sex ed
- (White) Feminism and Muslim Womxn: Exposing the Feminist Divide – Mejgan Lashkari, Queen’s University
- Thinking of the Children: How folk-medicine and grassroots movements aim to address diabetes and Zika virus in Trinidad and Tobago – Chantelle Ramsundar, University of Guelph
- Sex Education in Nigerian Canadian Families: A Case Study of Sociocultural, Transnational and Intergenerational Relations – Ifeoma Nnagbo, University of Ottawa

Panel #8: Room 305
Resisting the Carceral Leviathan: Mass incarceration, borders, and wrongful conviction
- Exploring the Experiences of Wrongfully Convicted Individuals: A Scoping Literature Review – Irena Djukic, York University
- The Real Cost of Marriage Fraud- Moral Policing of Canada's Spousal Sponsorship Applicants – Merin Valiyaparampil, University of Guelph
- Employer Discrimination Against Applicants with Criminal Records: An Ethnographic Audit – Janelle Douthwright, University of Toronto

---

Thank you to all the University of Guelph Departments, Colleges and Associations that help make this event possible!