

Réseau canadien d'histoire économique
Canadian Network for Economic History

Inégalités économiques et sociales
Economic and Social Inequality

Université de Montréal, 5-7 avril / April 5-7, 2002

VENDREDI 5 AVRIL / FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 2002

1:00-2:30 Migration

Président / Chair : Tony Ward (Brock University)

George Deltas (University of Illinois U.C.), Richard Sicotte (University of Calgary),
Peter Tomczak (University of Michigan School of Law)

Passenger Shipping Cartels and Their Effect on Transatlantic Migration

Alan Green (Queen's University), Mary MacKinnon (McGill University and Yale University), Chris Minns (McGill University)

Sorting Themselves Out? Canadian-born Workers in the United States and Western Canada, 1890-1910

2:45-4:15 Agriculture and Industry

Président / Chair : Angela Redish (University of British Columbia)

Marilyn Gerriets (St. Francis Xavier University)

Reaping the Harvests of the Sea and the Field : The Distribution of Income from Fishing and Farming in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick in 1870

Kris Inwood (Guelph University), Ian Keay (Queen's University)

Productivity Comparisons: Manufacturing in Canada and the United States along the International Border, 1870/71

4:30-5:30 Quebec-Ontario Comparisons

Président / Chair : Ruth Dupré (École des Hautes Études Commerciales)

Pierre Fortin (Université du Québec à Montréal)

Has Québec's Standard of Living Been Catching Up?

SAMEDI 6 AVRIL / SATURDAY, APRIL 6, 2002

8:30-10:30 Labour, Wealth Inequality, and Convergence

Président / Chair : Byron Lew (Trent University)

Livio Di Matteo (Lakehead University)
Wealth, Inequality and Economic Change

Miriam Wright (Acadia University)
Native Peoples in the Commercial Salmon Fishery of Alert Bay, British Columbia, 1945-1968

Patrick Coe (University of Calgary), Herbert Emery (University of Calgary)
The Extent of the Canadian Labour Market: Then and Now

11:00-12:00 Invited Speaker

Kenneth L. Sokoloff (University of California at Los Angeles)
Inequality, Institutions and Differential Paths of Growth Among New World Economies

13:30-15:30 New and Old Economic History

Président / Chair : Lou Cain (Loyola University)

Alvaro S. Pereira (University of British Columbia)
Endogenous Structural Breaks and the Two Views of the Industrial Revolution

C. Knick Harley (University of Western Ontario)
Twentieth Century Monetary Regimes in Canadian Perspective

Gillian Hamilton (University of Toronto)
Orphans in Montreal : Were They Disadvantaged in the Apprenticeship Market?

15:45-17:15 Business Cycles and Money

Président / Chair : Chris Minns (McGill University)

Allen Head (Queen's University), Stuart Wilson (University of Regina)
Business Cycles, Employment Uncertainty and Capital Accumulation in Canada, 1870-1913

Michael Bordo (Rutgers University and NBER), Angela Redish (UBC)
Is Deflation Depressing? : Evidence from the Classical Gold Standard

DIMANCHE 7 AVRIL / SUNDAY, APRIL 7, 2002

8:30-10:30 Health and Insurance

Président / Chair : Michael Huberman (Université de Montréal)

Herbert Emery (University of Calgary), George Emery (University of Western Ontario)
Voluntary Self-Help, Self-Reliance and the Divergent Paths of Compulsory State Health Insurance in England and the United States

John C. Brown (Clark University), Tim W. Guinnane (Yale University)
The Fertility Transition in Munich: First Results

André Poulin (Université de Sherbrooke)
Contribution féminine à l'économie familiale : le cas d'une communauté minière du sud du pays de Galles, Treherbert, 1861-1891

11:00-12:30 Gender Inequality

Président / Chair : Michael Huberman (Université de Montréal)

Byron Lew (Trent University), Marvin McNinnis (Queen's University)
The Changing Structure of Women's Work and Its Rewards, Canada, 1911-1961

Kris Inwood (Guelph University), Jim Irwin, Catherine McDevitt (Central Michigan)
Gender Differences in Pay and Productivity : Canadian Clothing Manufacturing in 1870