

The 4th Annual GTA Symposium on History, Philosophy, and Social Studies of Science, Technology, and Medicine

- Maya Goldenberg (University of Guelph): Trust in Science and the MMR Vaccine Controversy
- Aryn Martin and Kelly Holloway (York University): “Something there is that doesn't love a wall”: The elusive placental barrier in medical and popular discourse
- Conor Burns (Ryerson University): Giving form to Woodland chronology in American archaeology: A preliminary study
- Alexandra Rutherford (York University): “Poor Risks for the Professions”: Alice Boring, Georgene Seward, and Psychology's 'Woman Problem' Revisited
- Marga Vicedo (University of Toronto): Niko Tinbergen's work on autism: Interpreting gestures in gulls and children
- Eric Desjardins (University of Western Ontario): Reflections on Unpredictability and Resilience Thinking in Ecological Management

UNIVERSITY OF GUELPH
MACDONALD STEWART ART CENTRE
TUESDAY MAY 3rd 2011 10am to 4:30pm

Lunch will be provided. At the end of the day, participants are welcome to join us for food and drinks at The Albion Hotel located at 49 Norfolk Street in downtown Guelph.

All are welcome!

For further information on how to get there, parking and more, please go to:

<http://www.uoguelph.ca/history/GTAsymposium>

or contact Tara Abraham (taabraha@uoguelph.ca) or Sofie Lachapelle (slachap@uoguelph.ca)

