

Studies Annual Fall Colloquium
Saturday, October 6, 2012

Rozanski Hall
University of Guelph

Programme

9:00 – 9:30 am	Registration and Coffee
9:30 – 10:30 am	Dr. Sally Hickson (University of Guelph) “The Admirable Crichton” Dr. Alan Filewod (University of Guelph) “Scottish Radical Theatre Influences in Canada”
10:30 – 10:50 am	Coffee
10:50 – 12:20 pm	Dr. Michael Vance (Saint Mary’s University) “Imperial Immigrants? - Scots and the Upper Ottawa Valley, 1815-1840” Dr. Malcolm Bangor-Jones (Independent Scholar) “Prelude to the Crofters' War: the north west Highlands of Scotland in the mid-19th century”
12:20 – 1:00 pm	Lunch
1:00 – 2:15 pm	Graeme Morton (University of Guelph) Update on the Centre for Scottish Studies and 2012/13 Scottish Studies Student Awards 2012 Jill McKenzie Memorial Lecture Dr. Jamie Reid Baxter “The Sound of Renaissance Scotland: Music and Poetry”
2:15 – 2:35 pm	Coffee
2:35 – 3:35	Douglas Gibson, Scottish Studies Foundation Director, “Stories about Story Tellers”

Early Bird Registration ($25) will be available until September 21
Regular Registration ($30) may be made in advance or at the door
Members of The Scottish Studies Foundation ($25 any time)

For further details please email scottish@uoguelph.ca or see the Scottish Studies website at www.uoguelph.ca/scottish. Please note the schedule may change slightly.