

Department of History, University of Guelph

Presents Winter, 2013
Rural History Roundtable Series

Speaker: Dr. James Murton

“Out from the Market’s Shadow: Subsistence as the Primary Concern of Agricultural History”

Chadwick's Farm,
Courtesy of Lake-of-the-Woods Museum

Biography:

James Murton, Associate Professor, Department of History, Nipissing University.

He is a scholar of Food, Agricultural, Environmental and Canadian History

Date: Tuesday, February 5, 2013

Time: 2:30 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Place: Room 132 MacKinnon Bldg.,
University of Guelph

