

ACADEMIA AND FREEDOM OF SPEECH: A COMPARATIVE PERSPECTIVE

JOIN US FOR A SCHOLARS AT RISK LECTURE
FEATURING EVREN ALTINKAS

TUES. NOV 13th
6:00-7:30 p.m.
Alexander Hall
Room 100

Scholars at Risk (SAR) is a global network that advocates for academic freedom worldwide and connects vulnerable scholars with universities seeking to host them. Dr. Evren Altinkas is the first visiting professor who has joined the University of Guelph through the SAR network.

In this lecture, he will provide comparative historical insights about academics in Europe, North America, and the Middle East to address the issue of academic freedom.

Sponsored by the College of Social and Applied Human Sciences – Guelph Institute of Development Studies, Initiatives in Global Justice, and the College of Arts.

UNIVERSITY of GUELPH

IMPROVE LIFE.

SCHOLARS AT RISK
NETWORK  CANADA SECTION