

WINTER 2016

Courses Fulfilling English Distribution Requirements

Below are lectures and seminars that help satisfy a particular distribution requirement. The core seminars (ENGL*2120, ENGL*2130, ENGL*3640, ENGL*3960) are variable-content courses. Therefore make sure you have the correct section number when you register. In other words, make sure that the section number corresponds to the distribution requirement you need to satisfy.

Some courses and or sections may be added to this list closer to the start of the term.

Medieval/Early Modern

ENGL*3560	Medieval Literature
ENGL*4240	Medieval and Early Modern Literature

18th/19th Century

ENGL*2080*01	Finding a Critical Voice
ENGL*3540	Forging the US Nation
ENGL*3750	Postcolonial Literatures
ENGL*3760	Atlantic Worlds
ENGL*3940*02	Form, Genre, and Literary Value
ENGL*3960*03	Literature in History
ENGL*4420	Women's Writing
ENGL*4250	18 th - and 19 th -Century Literatures

20th/21st Century

ENGL*2130*02	Literature and Social Change
ENGL*3420	20 th - and 21 st -Century Drama
ENGL*3750	Postcolonial Literatures
ENGL*3880	Topics in Literary and Cultural Studies
ENGL*3940*01	Form, Genre, and Literary Value
ENGL*3960*01	Literature in History
ENGL 3960*02	Literature in History
ENGL*4410	Modern and Contemporary Literatures
ENGL*4890	Contemporary Literary Theory

Canadian Literature

ENGL*2880	Women in Literature
-----------	---------------------