
ITG

In the Gallery with...

Wednesday, December 6th, 2017

12:15pm | Bachinski/Chu Print Study Collection

Zavitz Building | Room 202

Wayne Caldwell

Join us for a public talk:

Rural Planning: Reflections on Practice

Wayne J. Caldwell (Ph.D., RPP, MCIP) is Associate Vice-President Research at the University of Guelph and a Professor in Rural Planning. He has previously served as Dean of the Ontario Agricultural College and as Director of the School of Environmental Design and Rural Development. His interests include planning for agriculture and community-based approaches to economic and environmental issues. His most recent books include: Planning for Rural Resilience, Better Decisions, Together: A Facilitation Guide for Community Engagement, and Attracting and Retaining Newcomers in Rural Communities and Small Towns. He has served as Chair or President of a number of local, provincial and national organizations and is a passionate advocate for the betterment of rural communities.

UNIVERSITY of GUELPH

IMPROVE LIFE.

Bachinski/Chu
Print Study Collection

sofam
school of fine art and music