HIST*3480 – WORKPLACE LEARNING

This is an independent study course based on either History related voluntary or paid workplace experience. Evaluation will be based on assignments relating to work duties. These will usually be in the form of a weekly journal, and a major project relating to some specific aspect of the work experience. Students interested in this option must have their project approved by the department prior to the semester in which they plan to engage in their work experience. Students will then be assigned to a faculty supervisor who will oversee the project.

This course is not electronic registration. Student must seek permission for supervision from an instructor.

Please see Undergraduate Calendar for full description.
