

PHIL*1050-01 INTRODUCTORY PHILOSOPHY: BASIC PROBLEMS [0.50]

Please note: This is a preliminary web course description only. The department reserves the right to change any aspect of this description without notice. The final, binding course outline will be distributed in the first class of the semester.

Instructor: TBA

Brief Course Synopsis:

This course introduces students to philosophy through the exploration of basic perennial philosophical problems and questions, such as whether there is free will, a God, objective right and wrong, genuine knowledge of the world, and other topics. The readings for the course will consist primarily of 20th century philosophical writing.

Textbook(s): TBA