Course Description:

What is ethics or morality? And why ought we be moral? Since antiquity, these questions have been answered in variety of ways by verity of moral philosophers. In this course the students will be introduced to such a range of ethical theories. We will critically examine some of the major schools in moral philosophy including, ethical subjectivism, cultural relativism, ethical egoism, utilitarianism, deontologism, etc. This analysis will be supplemented by a discussion of contemporary ethical issues and controversies such as animal rights, euthanasia, gay rights, etc.

Course Objectives:

By the end of the course the students should be able to:

- -Have a good grasp of the history and the range of moral theories.
- -Be able to identify, critically examine and assess moral controversies.
- -Be able to formulate their own thoughts on moral issues based on the analytic and critical skills they acquired throughout the course.

Required Text:

Brouce N. Waller, Consider Ethics: Theory Readings and contemporary Issues, Pearson, Longman, Third edition, 2004.

The lectures are aimed at explaining and enhancing the material in the textbook, as such they might not always be identical. Students are responsible for both the lecture material and the material in the textbook. The textbook is an important part of the activities for the participation assignment. Not having the textbook may result in poor participation mark.

Evaluation:

1) Five tests, each worth 10%
2) Participation assignment 15%
3) Final Paper (No final exam) 35%

-Tests will be short tests of five to six questions, covering material presented in class prior to each test.

-Participation: I will divide the class into groups and assign an exercise question to each group. I will give each group a sheet of paper where the students are to provide their group number, the date, their names and student number. On the back of the same sheet there is the question assigned to the group. They are given 30 minutes to discuss the question, and then write an answer. The sheets will be collected and marked as pass/fail. Each participation is worth 2%. You need to take part in six in order to get the maximum mark of 15% for participation. Not having your textbook for this exercise impacts your participation mark. This is an in class assignment. If you are not there I cannot give you a make-up.

-Final Paper is due on Thus. Dec. 5 Extension will be granted to those who provide good reasons for their request. Late papers will lose 2 marks out of 36 each day after the 10th.

Other Rules:

- -If you have any question or concern please come to see me during my office hours—don't stop me before or after the class. If you can't make the stated office hours, please let me know of your availability and I will accommodate you.
- -If you email me with a question, whose answer is in this outline, you will not hear back from me.
- -Make up exams will be allowed only after an official certification either from a doctor or your program counselor is provided. (See the Addendum to Course Outline at the end of syllabus).
- -Students will have two weeks window to contest their marks after their tests are returned to them.
- -Bring your textbook to class with you. Not having the text book might impact the participation mark.
- -This outline is subject to change with sufficient notice.
- -Laptops are allowed only for class purposes; transgressors will be asked to leave the class.
- -Cell Phones should be turned off (no texting in class). Transgressors will be asked to leave the class.
- -No recording (audio or visual) without the expressed consent of the instructor.
