PHIL*3240-01
PHILOSOPHY OF TECHNOLOGY [0.50]

Instructor: B. Wetstein

Brief Course Synopsis:

PHIL*3240

In Philosophy of Technology we explore a world that has become utterly reliant upon technological devices; so much so that, in the event of a power failure or natural disaster, the entire world economy is placed in peril. While it is easy for us to appreciate the appeal of the technology of modernity, it is important that we understand not just how the technology works, both for us and upon us, but also where this technology is leading us, both morally and politically.
