

Course Code: PHIL *6140	Section: 01	Semester: F12
Course Title: Contemporary European Philosophy
Instructor: Jeff Mitscherling
Brief course Synopsis: In this course we shall be examining the legacy of Aristotle in the development of early phenomenology and current realist phenomenology. The format will be lecture and discussion of readings (although presentations by participants is also an option, should they so desire), and the readings will be drawn from the works of Aristotle, Brentano, Husserl, and Ingarden, as well as from current works by those working in early and contemporary realist phenomenology.
