TIME: Tuesday and Thursday 11:30- 2:20pm
LOCATION: Zavitz Hall, Rm. 312/313
OFFICE: Zavitz Hall, Rm. 405
EMAIL: mtap@uoguelph.ca
OFFICE HOURS: Tuesdays 2:30-3:30 or by appointment

CALENDAR DESCRIPTION:

This course introduces various technical and aesthetic issues of painting, with an emphasis placed on representational strategies. Diverse approaches will be investigated through specific studio assignments in acrylic and oil-based media on various painting supports. Prior or concurrent Drawing classes are recommended.

Prerequisite(s): (1 of ARTH*1220, ARTH*1510, ARTH*1520), SART*1050, SART*1060;
(SART*1060 can be taken as co-requisites.)

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is designed to familiarize the beginning student with the traditions and practice of easel painting using oil and acrylic medium. Through completing the exercises, assignments and various projects, the student will achieve a basic competency in representational painting.

Studio demonstrations, lectures and gallery visits will assist the student to gain familiarity with the language of painting. Both historical and contemporary work will be introduced, with particular attention to the historical precedents and "permissions" involved in a variety of approaches. The student is expected to have an understanding of the conventions of drawing.

The course projects are structured logically to introduce the student first to the fundamentals of painting and then to the primary subjects of self-portrait and still life before moving on to the figure and independent work.

NOTE: This is a 0.5 credit course. Each week, students are expected to spend approximately six hours outside of class on related course work.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Students will gain knowledge of the historical precedents and theoretical discourses relevant to painting.
- Students will become familiar with a broad range of contemporary artworks produced by both national and international artists in painting.
- Students will develop significant visual literacy and communication skills necessary to analyze and discuss paintings, in terms of formal, technical and content analysis.
- Students will gain a hands-on familiarity with the materials, tools and technical processes necessary in the production of studio artworks in oil and acrylic painting. Given that this course focuses upon representational and observational painting, this includes use of value to create the illusion of form; colour identification and mixing; articulation of light and space; and pictorial organizational skills. Students will also learn the fundamentals of preparing supports, and proper care of tools.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

Students will be graded according to the development of their work and their engagement with the course. This means:

- complete all in-class and out-of-class assignments in time for critiques.
- Submit work on time for grading.
- Arrive at each class prepared for that day's work (materials for working and/ or projects ready for critique).
- Participate in critiques and class discussions.
- Participate in the class trip to Toronto galleries.
- students can expect to devote a minimum of 6 additional hours per week to out-of-class assigned projects.

Students are strongly encouraged to attend lectures given in the SoFAM by visiting artists, critics and scholars.

LAB FEES:

A compulsory materials fee of $85.00 will be charged for materials and services provided in support of required course projects. The lab fee is used to cover the following expenses: model fees, eco-house neutral thinner, gesso, rags, illustration board, Mayfair paper, Masonite, canvasboards.. The amount will be invoiced by the Office of the Bursar and paid directly with your tuition payment – no additional payment is necessary. THE LAB FEE WILL NOT BE REFUNDED AFTER THE THIRD WEEK OF CLASSES.

METHOD OF EVALUATION:

Evaluation occurs on an ongoing basis and is ultimately based on cumulative achievement.

The breakdown of assignments is as follows. The dates below refer to the grading, not critique dates. See note below. Please refer to the detailed syllabus for critique dates.

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 1. Technical exercises (colour and value) | 10% |
| 2. Portrait sequence | 20% |
| 3. Reproduction in oil paint | 5% |
| 4. Observational Painting I | 15% |
| 5. Observational painting II (figure) | 20% |
| 6. Final project | 20% |
| 7. Participation | 10% |

The instructor will meet with the students individually prior to the 40th class to conduct the mid-term portfolio review. (Friday March 11, 2016 is the last day to DROP courses.)

Work must be complete for critique. Works submitted after the grading due date will be subject to a late penalty of 10% per week.

All assignment sheets will include criteria for assessment. Technical exercises, for example, will be graded for accuracy whereas the works on canvas in the second half of the semester will be considered not just in technical terms, but also in broader terms including such things as ambition and inventiveness. For these works, you will be asked to complete a brief written statement to accompany the work when you hand it in for grading. In response, you can expect both comments and a grade.

You will receive a detailed syllabus at the first class that clearly lays out both critique and due dates.

Participation is essential to your success in this course. Without it, it is not possible to create the sort of engaged, active studio environment in which good work flourishes. Participation means regular, prompt attendance, engaging in class discussions and critiques, and attendance at selected artist lectures and participation in the field trip.

SAFETY:

Safety in the studio, etc. is a priority at all times. In order to ensure safety of all participants, the procedures/ guidelines provided by the instructor must be followed. It is the responsibility of each student to attend any safety orientation that is provided.

E-mail Communication

As per university regulations, all students are required to check their <mail.uoguelph.ca> e-mail account regularly: e-mail is the official route of communication between the University and its students.

When You Cannot Meet a Course Requirement

When you find yourself unable to meet an in-course requirement because of illness or compassionate reasons, please advise the course instructor (or designated person, such as a teaching assistant) in writing, with your name, id#, and e-mail contact. See the undergraduate calendar for information on regulations and procedures for Academic Consideration.

Drop Date

The last date to drop one-semester courses, without academic penalty, is Friday, March 11, 2016. For regulations and procedures for Dropping Courses, see the Undergraduate Calendar.

Copies of out-of-class assignments

Keep paper and/or other reliable back-up copies of all out-of-class assignments: you may be asked to resubmit work at any time.

Accessibility

The University of Guelph is committed to creating a barrier-free environment. Providing services for students is a shared responsibility among students, faculty and administrators. This relationship is based on respect of individual rights, the dignity of the individual and the University community's shared commitment to an open and supportive learning environment. Students requiring service or accommodation, whether due to an identified, ongoing disability or a short-term disability should contact Student Accessibility Services as soon as possible. For

Student Rights and Responsibilities

Each student at the University of Guelph has rights which carry commensurate responsibilities that involve, broadly, being a civil and respectful member of the University community. The Rights and Responsibilities are detailed in the Undergraduate Calendar

Academic Misconduct

The University of Guelph is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity and it is the responsibility of all members of the University community – faculty, staff, and students – to be aware of what constitutes academic misconduct and to do as much as possible to prevent academic offences from occurring. University of Guelph students have the responsibility of abiding by the University's policy on academic misconduct regardless of their location of study; faculty, staff and students have the responsibility of supporting an environment that discourages misconduct. Students need to remain aware that instructors have access to and the right to use electronic and other means of detection.

Please note: Whether or not a student intended to commit academic misconduct is not relevant for a finding of guilt. Hurried or careless submission of assignments does not excuse students from responsibility for verifying the academic integrity of their work before submitting it. Students who are in any doubt as to whether an action on their part could be construed as an academic offence should consult with a faculty member or faculty advisor. The Academic Misconduct Policy is detailed in the Undergraduate Calendar.

Recording of Materials

Presentations which are made in relation to course work—including lectures—cannot be recorded or copied without the permission of the presenter, whether the instructor, a classmate or guest lecturer. Material recorded with permission is restricted to use for that course unless further permission is granted.

MATERIALS LIST

We will review this list during the first class. Bring your sketchbook and drawing materials to the first class.

ACRYLIC Paints

Cadmium yellow middle or light (azo)
Cadmium Red light (azo)
Alizerin Crimson
Ultramarine blue
Cobalt blue
Mars or Ivory Black
Titanium white (large tube)

OIL paints

Cadmium yellow middle (azo)
Alizarin Crimson or Madder Lake (deep)
Cadmium Red light (azo)
Ultramarine blue
Cobalt blue hue
Titanium White (large tube)
Yellow Ochre

- note: oil paints will be used only after mid-term. You can wait until later to buy these.

Options, brands and notes:

Acrylic –

- Demco offers 120 ml tubes for $4.95 each.
- Another option: pair up with another student and buy all seven required colours in Demco or Georgian

Oil paints – you'll likely use more of these than the acrylics during the semester. Georgian paints are the most economical at $8.69/ tube.

BRUSHES

- Flats or brights, hogs hair: minimum: two each of 1/2" (#8), and 1/4" (#6) plus one round (#4 or #6)
- one cheap 2" house-painting brush (for gesso)

options, brands and notes:

- Pebeo's "Real Value" brush kit for $14.95 has a good mix of brushes for the price
- China Bristle brushes are the cheapest - $1.25 for #6 and $1.95 for #8, but they won't last very long.
- The Premier Bristle is Wyndham Art's house brand – and it's a solid brush for the price. Brushes are priced according to size. It's worth getting at least two from this series.
- If you buy good hogs hair or higher quality synthetic brushes (Simply Simmons is pretty good) then you can use the same brushes for both oil and acrylic. Watch out for overly floppy / soft synthetic brushes as they are of limited use for oil painting.

MEDIUM / THINNER

- This will be provided by your lab fee. The only thinner permitted in the studios is EcoHouse Neutral Thinner or Gamsol.

SUPPORTS

- Prepared canvases: there will be a demonstration early in the term to teach you to build stretchers, stretch and prime canvas. At the beginning of term you will receive a list of suggested canvas dimensions for each project.

*You will be expected to construct at least one of the four stretchers.

OTHER

- 2 lidded jars for mineral spirits (a large coffee tin with a fitted lid is ideal)
- razor blade scraper (for cleaning glass)(available at hardware stores or art supply store)
- palette knife (a good quality metal one goes for $4.95 and a cheapo plastic one for $1.60)

(Note – a palette knife is for mixing paint, and is usually a long, thin tapered shape. This is different from a painting knife, in which the metal blade comes in a variety of shapes)

DRAWING MATERIALS:

- pencils, eraser
- ruler
- exacto knife or scissors
- glue stick
- sketchbook
