CALENDAR DESCRIPTION

Contemporary issues in interdisciplinary art production will be addressed through at least two thematic projects and one self-directed work based on the students' own research in close consultation with the instructor. Students may choose to pursue and perfect one medium, or take a more interdisciplinary approach to art production.

Prerequisite(s): 1 of SART*3770, SART*4660, SART*4670

Restriction(s): Registration is limited to students registered in the Art History or Studio Art specializations of the Bachelor of Arts program with an average of 70% in all ARTH and SART course attempts.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is designed to establish a focused and individual approach to art production in preparation for independent research and production. The semester will include introductory exercises, readings, a class field trip, two thematic assignments, and a major final project. Works produced in class will be documented and archived by students on the course blog throughout the term with images and textual descriptions.

Our class dynamic is of primary importance, and participation in the studio community is essential to develop a critical and supportive atmosphere. This practice should extend to the larger art community, as students begin to participate within a broader context.

NOTE: this is a 0.5 credit course. Each week, students are expected to spend approximately 4 –6 hours outside of class on related course work.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students will develop a greater familiarity with multi-disciplinary contemporary art practices.

Students will develop more refined strategies for using the tools and materials of multi-disciplinary art production.

Students will develop skills at researching and creating projects independently.

Students will develop more advanced skills at analyzing and discussing art works in a critical context.

Students will develop their familiarity and participation in the wider professional field.

LAB FEE:

A compulsory materials fee of $55.00 will be charged for materials and services provided in support of required course projects. The amount will be invoiced by the Office of the Bursar and paid directly with your tuition payment – no additional payment is necessary. THE LAB FEE WILL NOT BE REFUNDED AFTER THE THIRD WEEK OF CLASSES.

Items Provided by Lab Fee:

- Batteries
- Ink (printing, various papers)
- Installation supplies (earth magnets, nails, pins)
- Wall paint and repair supplies for installations (Total misc. supplies $15)
- Printing of one copy of a print-on-demand book for a final project. (Total budget for printing $40)

An additional fee for a mandatory class field trip will be paid by students on-line. Dates and approximate amount to be announced in first class.

Items Provided by the student:

Students will supply their own materials related to their own multi-disciplinary studio projects.

Estimated costs:

Video: $50

Party Art: $50

Book work: (printing is covered by course fee) + $30 for misc. materials

PLEASE NOTE: A student should not be required to pay any additional monies for supplies needed to complete course assignments – excluding items listed under “Items Provided by the Student”. All supplies are to be paid for using Lab Fee monies. If you are being charged additional monies, please report to Robin McGinnis (rmcginni@uoguelph.ca) in the main office (Zavitz Hall rm. 201) immediately.

Accessibility

The University of Guelph is committed to creating a barrier-free environment. Providing services for students is a shared responsibility among students, faculty and administrators. This relationship is based on respect of individual rights, the dignity of the individual and the University community's shared commitment to an open and supportive learning environment.

Students requiring service or accommodation, whether due to an identified, ongoing disability or a short-term disability should contact Student Accessibility Services as soon as possible. For more information, contact SAS at 519-824-4120 ext. 56208 or email csd@uoguelph.ca or see the website.

Student Rights and Responsibilities

Each student at the University of Guelph has rights which carry commensurate responsibilities that involve, broadly, being a civil and respectful member of the University community. The Rights and Responsibilities are detailed in the Undergraduate Calendar

Academic Misconduct

The University of Guelph is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity and it is the responsibility of all members of the University community – faculty, staff, and students – to be aware of what constitutes academic misconduct and to do as much as possible to prevent academic offences from occurring. University of Guelph students have the responsibility of abiding by the University's policy on academic misconduct regardless of their location of study; faculty, staff and students have the responsibility of supporting an environment that discourages misconduct. Students need to remain aware that instructors have access to and the right to use electronic and other means of detection.

Please note: Whether or not a student intended to commit academic misconduct is not relevant for a finding of guilt. Hurried or careless submission of assignments does not excuse students from responsibility for verifying the academic integrity of their work before submitting it. Students who are in any doubt as to whether an action on their part could be construed as an academic offence should consult with a faculty member or faculty advisor. The Academic Misconduct Policy is detailed in the Undergraduate Calendar.

Recording of Materials

Presentations which are made in relation to course work—including lectures—cannot be recorded or copied without the permission of the presenter, whether the instructor, a classmate or guest lecturer. Material recorded with permission is restricted to use for that course unless further permission is granted.
