Calendar Description
Hockey provides a valuable prism through which major cultural, socio-economic and even political developments within Canada can be reflected. This course reviews the considerable role that hockey has played in Canada’s post-Confederation history. From the late nineteenth century and throughout the twentieth century, hockey has helped to inform the nation’s sense of self and has also reflected prevailing social attitudes and cultural values within Canada.

Course Learning Outcomes
By the end of the course, you should be able to:

- Locate the importance of hockey within Canada’s larger cultural, political and social narrative;
- Examine the way by which hockey and hockey culture in Canada has reflected broader trends in Canadian society and specific events in Canadian history;
- Debate critically the extra-sporting role that hockey has played and continues to play in the evolution of the Canadian nation;
- Identify and assess societal issues that have directly affected hockey and the Canadian nation;
- Write a research essay drawing on historical evidence from both primary and secondary resources.

Technical Requirements
You are expected to have an understanding of Internet and email basics. You will be navigating and searching the Internet and corresponding with others in your class using web-based Discussion and email.

Please ensure that your computer system meets the Minimum Requirements as outlined on the Open Learning Technical Requirements page.

If you do not have these technical requirements, consider either upgrading your personal computer, or using a machine on campus. Trying to use someone else’s computer for the course may prove to be frustrating and difficult.

Policies and Regulations
Distance Education and Open Learning Program Handbooks

Degree Credit Students:

Please ensure that you have reviewed the DE Handbook. In particular, ensure that you review the sections that pertain to Assignment Submissions and Returns, Online Quizzes or Tests and Final Examinations.

Open Learning Program Students:

Please ensure that you have reviewed the Open Learning program Handbook for the specific procedures and policies related to your studies through Open Learning and Educational Support.
Email Communication

Degree Credit Students:

As per University regulations, all students are required to check their uoguelph.ca e-mail account regularly: e-mail is the official route of communication between the University and its students.

Open Learning Program Students without a University of Guelph email account:

Check your email account (the account you provided upon registration) regularly for important communications, as this is the primary conduit by which the Open Learning and Educational Support will notify you of events, deadlines, announcements or any other official information.

When You Cannot Meet Course Requirements

Degree Credit Students:

When you find yourself unable to meet an in-course requirement due to illness or compassionate reasons, please advise your course instructor in writing, with your name, ID number and email contact. See the Undergraduate Calendar for information on regulations and procedures for Academic Consideration.

Open Learning Program Students:

Please refer to the Open Learning program Handbook.

Drop Date

Degree Credit Students:

The last date to drop one-semester courses, without academic penalty, is indicated in the Schedule section of this course website. See the Undergraduate Calendar for regulations and procedures for Dropping Courses.

Open Learning Program Students:

Please refer to the Open Learning program Handbook.

Copies of Assignments

Keep paper and/or other reliable back-up copies of all assignments: you may be asked to resubmit work at any time.

Accessibility

Degree Credit Students:

The University of Guelph is committed to creating a barrier-free environment. Providing services for students is a shared responsibility among students, faculty and administrators. This relationship is based on respect of individual rights, the dignity of the individual and the University community's shared commitment to an open and supportive learning environment. Students requiring service or accommodation, whether due to an identified, ongoing disability or a short-term disability should contact the Student Accessibility Services as soon as possible. For more information, contact SAS at 519-824-4120 ext. 56208 or email csd@uoguelph.ca or see the website: Student Accessibility Services.

Open Learning Program Students:

Students with disabilities requiring special accommodation for tests during the semester or for final exams shall contact the Open Learning and Educational Support Program Counsellor at counsellor@OpenEd.uoguelph.ca, before the end of the first week of classes to ensure that appropriate support can be arranged. If contact is not made by this time, support may be delayed. Students will be asked to provide documentation from a health professional or from their home institution. Please note all information provided is held in confidence.

Academic Misconduct

The University of Guelph is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity and it is the responsibility of all members of the University community – faculty, staff, and students – to be aware of what constitutes academic misconduct and to do as much as possible to prevent academic offences from occurring. University of Guelph students have the responsibility of abiding by the University's policy on academic misconduct regardless of their location of study; faculty, staff and students have the responsibility of supporting an environment that discourages misconduct. Students need to remain aware that instructors have access to and the right to use electronic and other means of detection.

Please note: Whether or not a student intended to commit academic misconduct is not relevant for a finding of guilt. Hurried or careless submission of assignments does not excuse students from responsibility for verifying the academic integrity of their work before submitting it. Students who are in any doubt as to whether an action on their part could be construed as an academic offence should consult with a faculty member or faculty advisor.

The Academic Misconduct Policy is detailed in the Undergraduate Calendar.

Acceptable Use

The University of Guelph has an Acceptable Use Policy, which you are expected to adhere to.
