

European Studies: MA

This innovative interdisciplinary programme combines humanities and social science perspectives to the study of Europe, both past and present. It aims to provide students with a flexible approach to European Studies that allows for specialization within a core discipline and promotes expertise in European culture, history, and contemporary politics and society.

<https://www.uoguelph.ca/arts/solal/grad/euro>

Program

Students will take 6 semester courses (3.0 credits): two core courses (European Identities and Research Methods) and electives from other European Studies courses or courses that focus on Europe from other programmes. They will also write a major research paper. Programme duration: Four semesters.

Faculty Expertise

- Cultures of Sport and Leisure in Global Europe
- Myth, Fairy Tales and European Identities
- Representing Gender
- European Identities (gender, minorities, national)
- Nineteenth-Century Studies
- Literature, Music, and Art in Comparative Perspective
- Trauma, Memory, and Migration

Application Deadline:

February 1, 2018

Erin Budra, European Studies MA (2014)

Research project: Commemorating Women in the French Resistance

Now: Bilingual Information and Education Officer, Parliamentary Protocol and Public Relations Department, Queen's Park, Toronto

Admission Requirements

The normal requirement for admission to the European Studies MA programme is the equivalent of an Honours degree from a recognized institution with at least a B+ average in the last year of study. A reading competence in a European language in addition to English is recommended. Coursework for the programme is normally done in English. Students wishing to enter the programme do so in September. The following documents must accompany your request for admission: The official application form (<https://www.uoguelph.ca/graduatestudies/future/applying-guelph>)

A detailed up-to-date curriculum vitae. A one-page statement of research (letter of intent) outlining your reasons for applying to this programme. A sample of writing that displays your aptitude for research and analytical thinking (approx. 2,500 words). Two letters of recommendation.

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN:

- European history, culture and politics?
- Europe in relation to other continents or Europe in a global world?
- Identity formation (e.g. minority, national, gender)?
- Nationalism and internationalism?
- Interplay between culture and politics?

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES:

- Government Ministries/Civil Service/International Organizations
- Teaching
- Private Sector with ties to Europe
- International Education
- Arts Administration

CONTACT INFORMATION

Graduate Coordinator:

Prof. Dorothy Odartey-Wellington
519-824-4120 ext. 53179
dodartey@uoguelph.ca

Graduate Program Assistant:

Angelina Candotti
519-824-4120 ext. 53883
euroma@uoguelph.ca