1 Course Details

1.1 Calendar Description

This course is an introduction to epistemology, which is the study of the nature, scope, and limits of knowledge. This course will examine a number of the central questions in epistemology, such as: what can we know? What is the nature of knowledge? And what is the difference between knowledge and true belief?

Pre-Requisite(s): 2.00 credits or (1 of PHIL*1000, PHIL*1010, PHIL*1030, PHIL*1050)

Equate(s): PHIL*2250

1.2 Course Description

In this course we will explore a number of fundamental questions in the field of epistemology, or theory of knowledge. In our advanced digital age, it is relatively easy to get information, and as a result we think we know a lot about a lot of different things. But what, precisely, is knowledge? And how is it different from mere opinion? What role does truth play in demarking the difference? And do true beliefs need to be backed up by evidence? These questions have been debated since Ancient times, and we will examine them while also considering some emerging questions in social epistemology, feminist epistemology and the epistemology of ignorance.

6 Assessments

Evaluation
1. Midterm test: 30%. This will be an in-class test. It may include some definitions, true/false questions, short answer and long answer questions.

   - Students unable to write the mid-term test for medical reasons will be required to submit a medical certificate. Students who miss the test for medical or religious reasons will be given one opportunity to do a rewrite.

2. 5 in-class quizzes (5 x 3%): 15%. These quizzes will be given in the last 30 minutes of class and will consist of a number of the Study Questions (or some portion thereof) which appear at the end of each chapter of the Pritchard text. You will be tested only on material that we have covered in class prior to the quiz. You can earn a grade of 1/3 if you complete the quiz and get at least some of it right; you can earn a grade of 2/3 if you complete the quiz and get over half of it right; or you can earn a grade of 3/3 if you complete the quiz and get most of it right. You will get a 0/3 if you don’t do the quiz or get it entirely wrong.

3. One 3-page essay (20%). Topics for the essay will be handed out at least 2 weeks prior to the due date.

   - Late essays will be penalized 2% per day unless accompanied by a medical certificate.
   - Note: The philosophy department does not accept late essays at the front office and I do not accept emailed essays. Essays must be handed in to me, in person, either in class or during my office hours.

4. Final exam: 35%. This will take place during the Final Exam Period as scheduled by the College of Arts. The exam may include some definitions, true/false questions, short answer and long answer questions.

   - Students who are unable to write the final exam due to medical or religious reasons must follow the guidelines set out in Undergraduate Calendar.

7 University Statements

7.1 Email Communication

As per university regulations, all students are required to check their e-mail account regularly: e-mail is the official route of communication between the University and its students.

7.2 When You Cannot Meet a Course Requirement

When you find yourself unable to meet an in-course requirement because of illness or compassionate reasons please advise the course instructor (or designated person, such as a teaching assistant) in writing, with your name, id#, and e-mail contact. The regulations and procedures for Academic Consideration are detailed in the Undergraduate Calendar.

7.3 Drop Date

Courses that are one semester long must be dropped by the end of the fortieth class day; two-semester courses must be dropped by the last day of the add period in the second semester. The regulations and procedures for Dropping Courses are available in the Undergraduate Calendar.

7.4 Copies of Out-of-class Assignments

Keep paper and/or other reliable back-up copies of all out-of-class assignments: you may be asked to resubmit work at any time.

7.5 Accessibility

The University promotes the full participation of students who experience disabilities in their academic programs. To that end, the provision of academic accommodation is a shared responsibility between the University and the student.

When accommodations are needed, the student is required to first register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS). Documentation to substantiate the existence of a disability is required, however, interim accommodations may be possible while that process is underway.

Accommodations are available for both permanent and temporary disabilities. It should be noted that common illnesses such as a cold or the flu do not constitute a disability.

Use of the SAS Exam Centre requires students to book their exams at least 7 days in advance, and not later than the 40th Class Day.

7.6 Academic Misconduct

The University of Guelph is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity and it is the responsibility of all members of the University community – faculty, staff, and students – to be aware of what constitutes academic misconduct and to do as much as possible to prevent academic offences from occurring. University of Guelph students have the responsibility of abiding by the University's policy on academic misconduct regardless of their location of study; faculty, staff and students have the responsibility of supporting an environment that discourages misconduct. Students need to remain aware that instructors have access to and the right to use electronic and other means of detection.

Please note: Whether or not a student intended to commit academic misconduct is not relevant for a finding of guilt. Hurried or careless submission of assignments does not excuse students from responsibility for verifying the academic integrity of their work before submitting it. Students who are in any doubt as to whether an action on their part could be construed as an academic offence should consult with a faculty member or faculty advisor.

The Academic Misconduct Policy is detailed in the Undergraduate Calendar.
