

Guerrilla Grads: Alternative Histories Conference
University of Guelph

Conference Program

9:00 – 9:30 AM Registration & Refreshments (Rozanski Hall Concourse)

9:30 – 11:00 AM Panel Sessions I

1A. The Road to Wellness: Histories of Health and Medicine

Chair: TBA

Caley McCarthy (University of Waterloo), “The Historiography of Medicine in Pre-Modern Europe.”

Katherine Heyland (University of Guelph), “Choleric Mobilities: How travel changed - and enabled - the bacteriological investigation of the Vibrio cholerae.”

Alisha Pol (University of Waterloo), “Scientific Motherhood: Prescriptions for Constructing a ‘Healthy’ Nation.”

1B: Framing Femininities through Music and Art

Chair: TBA

Kimberly Dority (Queen’s University), “Music and Mimesis: Examining Women’s Resistance in Medieval Christian Mysticism.”

Jesslyn Effler (University of Guelph), “Representations of Consumptive Beauty in Nineteenth-Century Paris.”

Megan Pickard (University of Guelph), “‘Sin is a disease which can only be cured when confessed’: Representations of Mary Magdalene in Victorian Britain during her moment of Awakened Conscience.”

11:00 – 11:15 AM Tea & Coffee (Rozanski Hall Concourse)

11:15 – 12:15 PM Panel Sessions II

2A: Other Bodies in Eighteenth Century Britain

Chair: Dr. Jacqueline Murray

Stephanie Hunt (University of Toronto), “Black Bodies as Text: Writing Enslavement onto the Bodies of Africans in Eighteenth-Century British Law.”

Kathryn Taylor (University of Pennsylvania), “Farinelli’s Bugle: Castrati and Discourses of Artificiality in Eighteenth-Century England.”

Guerrilla Grads: Alternative Histories Conference
University of Guelph

2B: Huntin' and Shootin': Masculinities in Sports and War

Chair: Dr. Kris Gies

Monica Finlay (University of Guelph), "Sporting Holidays: Victorian Masculinity and Field Sports in Scotland."

Stephanie Bigelow (University of Waterloo) "The Canadian Army Film and Photo Unit: Visuality and the Second World War."

12:15 – 1:15 PM Lunch (on your own – map provided of food services)

1:15 – 2:30 PM Keynote Presentation: Dr. Steven Bednarski, St. Jerome's University at the University of Waterloo

2:30 – 3:45 PM Panel Session III

3: Awful Offenses: Crime and Sex in Protestant Europe

Chair: Heather Parker

Kirk Goodlet (University of Waterloo), "'Better to marry than to burn': The Regulation of Marriage and Sexuality in Zwingli's Zurich, 1520-1531."

Janine Knedlik (University of Guelph), "Gilbert's lies: an examination of the Perth kirk session at work, 1617."

Krystle Borsa (University of Guelph), "'Guid Behaviour of Tongue and Hand': Early Modern Scottish Women and Crime in Kirkcudbright, 1606-1658."

3:45 – 4:00 PM Tea & Coffee (Rozanski Hall Concourse)

4:00 – 5:30 PM Panel Session IV

4: Hidden in Plain Sight: Reconsidering Traditional Ontario History

Chair: Nicki Darbyson

Jacqueline Cannata (University of Guelph), "Covert Crimes: The Organization and Tactics of the Fenian Brotherhood in Small Town Ontario, 1864-1868."

Mark Sholdice (University of Guelph), "Hegel in the Heartland?: Political Patronage and Ontario Farmers' Struggle for Recognition, 1919-1923."

Jodey Nurse (University of Guelph), "'An Event Not to Be Missed': The County of Peel Agricultural Society and the Peel County Fall Fair in Nineteenth-Century Ontario."