

A photograph of a person with short dark hair and glasses, wearing a red sweater, holding a glowing lantern in a library. The person is looking to the right. The background shows bookshelves filled with books. The scene is dimly lit, with the lantern providing the main source of light.

Archives After Hours

Come and learn more about the University Archives!

Finishing your essay? Looking to upgrade your work? Don't have enough primary sources? The History Society will be holding a tour of the library archives on Monday, March 21. Learn about what sources the archive has to offer, how to find relevant sources, and how to make the archives work for you!

March 21, 5:30pm

McLaughlin Library Archives (Basement)

University of Guelph History Society