Embellishing Horses: A Tour of the University's Horse Brass Collection

Judith Nasby is Curator Emerita of the Art Gallery of Guelph (formerly the Macdonald Stewart Art Centre). She retired as the gallery's Director/Curator in 2013 after more than 35 years developing, curating, and overseeing the AGG's 8,000-piece permanent collection. Judith has curated more than 100 exhibitions, written 50 publications, including three scholarly books, and has lectured and toured exhibitions on four continents. She is an adjunct professor in the University of Guelph's School of Fine Art and Music and a curatorial mentor for the Boarding House Arts Incubator program.
