

THE DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY
UNIVERSITY OF GUELPH

PRESENTS:

Dr. Janet Golden
'Message in a Bottle:
The Making of Fetal Alcohol Syndrome '

Dr. Janet Golden is Professor of History at Rutgers-Camden and author of A Social History of Wet Nursing in America: From Breast to Bottle (Cambridge University Press, 1996) and Message in a Bottle: The Making of Fetal Alcohol Syndrome (Harvard University Press, 2005). She is currently working on a book on the history of babies.
Visit: <http://dept.camden.rutgers.edu/jgolden>

Saturday, March 17th, 2012
(To coincide with College Royale)

at 3:30 p.m., Alexander Hall 100
University of Guelph