Today's program will be announced from the stage.

Biography

Allan Gorman is a performer and an educator in the Toronto music community. He grew up in northern Ontario and that experience has been an important influence throughout his life. Playing acoustic guitar and improvised stringband music evolved into a passion for jazz. In 2014, he formed his latest quartet to record "Bisco Blues", a nod to his roots in Biscotasing, ON. The Al Gorman Quartet is made up of Janis Steprans from Quebec City (saxophone), Torontonians Rob Clutton (bass) and Nick Fraser (drums).

A workshop with the Al Gorman Quartet will follow the concert.

All are welcome to attend.
