COURSE OUTLINE

This is a course in French grammar, oral and written skills for students who have Ontario Grade 11 French or equivalent but not above. Please note that FREN*1150 cannot be counted toward a specialization in French. Students with native or near-native ability in French, including Francophone and French immersion students, will not be admitted to this course.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

In the three hour class period, students work to develop their oral and written skills in French, learn or review basic grammar principles, practice oral skills through communication games and discussion of reading materials.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of the course, students should be able to achieve basic communication in oral and written French, referring to past, present or future situations.

METHOD OF PRESENTATION

The course will be interactive and conducted mainly in French. Active student participation is not only expected, but is a vital aspect of learning a language, and pre-class preparation of assigned materials is crucial to active participation. Students are encouraged to work on their own in the College of Arts Media Centre (019 MacKinnon) to reinforce their knowledge of the French language.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS

Le Nouveau Taxi 1. Méthode de français, Éditions Hachette 2009
Le Nouveau Taxi 1. Cahier d’exercices, Éditions Hachette 2009

METHOD OF EVALUATION

There will be 3 evaluations in each area, of which the best 2 will be kept officially. Each will cover the last 2 or 3 units. Conversely, exams will be based on the entire course contents.

- Quizzes (weeks 4, 7, 11) > 2 x 10% = 20%
- Written work > 2 x 10% = 20%
- Oral work > 2 x 10% = 20%
- Final written exam (20-4-16, 19:00) 30%
- Final oral exam 10%
STANDARD STATEMENTS

E-mail Communication
As per university regulations, all students are required to check their <mail.uoguelph.ca> e-mail account regularly: e-mail is the official route of communication between the University and its students.

When You Cannot Meet a Course Requirement
When you find yourself unable to meet an in-course requirement because of illness or compassionate reasons, please advise the course instructor (or designated person, such as a teaching assistant) in writing, with your name, id#, and e-mail contact. See the undergraduate calendar for information on regulations and procedures for Academic Consideration.

Drop Date
The last date to drop one-semester courses, without academic penalty, is Friday, 11 March 2016. For regulations and procedures for Dropping Courses, see the Undergraduate Calendar.

Copies of out-of-class assignments
Keep paper and/or other reliable back-up copies of all out-of-class assignments: you may be asked to resubmit work at any time.

Accessibility
The University of Guelph is committed to creating a barrier-free environment. Providing services for students is a shared responsibility among students, faculty and administrators. This relationship is based on respect of individual rights, the dignity of the individual and the University community's shared commitment to an open and supportive learning environment. Students requiring service or accommodation, whether due to an identified, ongoing disability or a short-term disability should contact Student Accessibility Services as soon as possible. For more information, contact SAS at 519-824-4120 ext. 56208 or email csd@uoguelph.ca or see the website.

Student Rights and Responsibilities
Each student at the University of Guelph has rights which carry commensurate responsibilities that involve, broadly, being a civil and respectful member of the University community. The Rights and Responsibilities are detailed in the Undergraduate Calendar

Academic Misconduct
The University of Guelph is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity and it is the responsibility of all members of the University community – faculty, staff, and students – to be aware of what constitutes academic misconduct and to do as much as possible to prevent academic offences from occurring. University of Guelph students have the responsibility of abiding by the University's policy on academic misconduct regardless of their location of study; faculty, staff and students have the responsibility of supporting an environment that discourages misconduct. Students need to remain aware that instructors have access to and the right to use electronic and other means of detection.

Please note: Whether or not a student intended to commit academic misconduct is not relevant for a finding of guilt. Hurried or careless submission of assignments does not excuse students from responsibility for verifying the academic integrity of their work before submitting it.
Students who are in any doubt as to whether an action on their part could be construed as an academic offence should consult with a faculty member or faculty advisor. The Academic Misconduct Policy is detailed in the Undergraduate Calendar.

Recording of Materials
Presentations which are made in relation to course work—including lectures—cannot be recorded or copied without the permission of the presenter, whether the instructor, a classmate or guest lecturer. Material recorded with permission is restricted to use for that course unless further permission is granted.
