COURSE DESCRIPTION:
The first session will take place on the first Tuesday of the semester in the MacKinnon Building, Room 203, at 7:00pm SHARP.

The Contemporary Music Ensemble is dedicated to exploring the music of our time through our own creative music-making. During the fall semester our focus is on the critical practice of free improvisation. The experience of improvising together for a semester is then built upon throughout the winter semester as we investigate and negotiate a variety of contemporary/creative/experimental composition and approaches to ensemble play.

The CME is a friendly, supportive, and collaborative group. The thoughts, opinions, and interests of our individual members have a great deal of influence on the musical journey the group takes together each semester. We often have the opportunity to work with guest musicians and have them add to our collective experience as well.

Given our limited rehearsal time, it is essential that all members of the ensemble be assembled and ready to play by 7 pm each week. Our work is collaborative and your absence has a real effect on the work and play of your colleagues as well as a significant effect on your grade.

Entrance to the Contemporary Music Ensemble is by permission of instructor which will be offered after the initial rehearsal session. Please attend that first rehearsal with your instrument to find out more. You should show up with an open mind and be ready to play.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:
- listening
- a working understanding of complex ensemble dynamics
- improvisatory music-making techniques
- extended instrumental techniques
- a working understanding of, and ability to negotiate, a diverse set of structured musics including different approaches to compositions involving traditional western notation, graphic scores, game-play, gestural languages, etc.
METHOD OF EVALUATION:

achieved.

Contribution to the ensemble (including weekly preparation) ...................................... 50%
Performance level achieved in rehearsals and concerts ................................................ 30%
Creative contribution (either through solo or group work) ........................................... 20%
