Course Code: PHIL*3240
Section: DE
Semester: F12

Course Title:
Philosophy of Technology

Instructor:
Dr. Aaron Massecar

Brief course Synopsis:

This course examines the philosophical problems associated with technology. Topics may include the nature of technology, the relation between technology and science, and the various critiques of technology - religious, political, ethical and existentialist - in contemporary society.

Textbook(s):
Technology and Values: Essential Readings Craig hanks (Editor). John Wiley & Sons, 2009
Available at the University Bookstore

Course requirements / evaluation:

The assessment breakdown is as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assignment</th>
<th>Weight</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Essay Assignment</td>
<td>30%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Discussion Participation</td>
<td>30%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Final Exam</td>
<td>40%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Total 100%

Essay 30%
Discussion Posts 30%
Final Exam 40%