

PHIL 4550, Philosophy Honours Workshop
Fall 2012

Prof. K. Wendling

What's next? This course is designed to help you prepare for the next steps in your life, after graduation – whether that involves college, teachers college, law school, grad school, or something else. We will discuss a range of things that people do with philosophy degrees; ways to explain how philosophy is applicable to your next step if you will not be continuing in philosophy; how to apply to college, teachers college, law school, grad school, or whatever; taking the LSAT or other standardized tests; what should go in your application, and so on.

Assignments TBA.
