Email policy:

- When you email an instructor or TA, please include the course code in the subject line and address us respectfully, with proper salutations.
- Whenever possible on business days, emails will be answered within 48 hours. Students should not expect an immediate response, particularly on weekends or holidays (please be patient).
- Please use your UoG email address; emails from other domains may be flagged as spam.
- If your email concerns an upcoming assessment, please get in touch as early as possible. Last-minute requests cannot be accommodated.
- If your email concerns information that has been covered on the syllabus, you may not receive a response.

Course description:

This course will survey classical mythology, both Greek and Roman. You will learn about the myths themselves as well as the literary texts in which they are featured, developing a broad general knowledge of multiple aspects of ancient Greek and Roman society, history, literature, and art through the lens of myth.

Learning outcomes:

By the end of this course, you should be able to:

1. Connect specific myths to the cultures that produced them
2. Identify the histories and functions of the gods and heroes of classical myth
3. Identify the literary and the visual iconography of major gods, heroes, and legends of classical myth
4. Explore a variety of scholarly approaches to mythology in discussion and writing
5. Develop an appreciation for the range and diversity of mythology and folklore

6. Identify recurring mythological themes and motifs
7. Recognize the role of myth in the arts and literature

Course materials (required):

- Walsh, John. The Poppies of Troy. Kendall Hunt, 2021.
- Other materials will be provided electronically. Please ensure you keep up with readings on Courselink.

Assessment:

- 45% term tests (x3, 15% each); Jan 30, Feb 13, Mar 13
  - Tests will be administered electronically and remotely; details will be provided.
  - Term tests will involve commentary on selected passages from the primary source readings, and short essays.
- 30% final exam (Apr 13, 8.30-10.30am; remote synchronous. You must take the final at this date and time, so please ensure you are available.)
  - The format of the final exam will follow that of the tests, on a larger scales.
- 25% written assignment, due Mar 24
  - Your final assignment will involve comparing ancient myth to modern culture. Details and a rubric will be provided.

Policy on late work:

- In the absence of an extension, assignments will be deducted 5% (out of 100) for each 24 hours of lateness.
- Given the difficult circumstances at present, I will not require documentation for any requests for extensions. All I ask is that you please contact me as far in advance as possible if you will need an extension – I cannot grant them at the last minute, out of fairness to the TAs, who must plan their semester. The best thing you can do if you are having trouble keeping up is to stay in touch; provided you keep me informed, we will be able to find a solution.

University of Guelph: Undergraduate Policies

As a student of the University of Guelph, it is important for you to understand your rights and responsibilities and the academic rules and regulations that you must abide by.

If you are a registered University of Guelph Degree Student, consult the Undergraduate Calendar for the rules, regulations, curricula, programs and fees for current and previous academic years.

If you are an Open Learning Program Student, consult the Open Learning Program Calendar for information about University of Guelph administrative policies, procedures and services.

Copies of Assignments

Keep paper and/or other reliable back-up copies of all assignments: you may be asked to resubmit work at any time.

Accessibility

University of Guelph Degree Students

The University promotes the full participation of students who experience disabilities in their academic programs. To that end, the provision of academic accommodation is a shared responsibility between the University and the student.

When accommodations are needed, the student is required to first register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS). Documentation to substantiate the existence of a disability is required; however, interim accommodations may be possible while that process is underway.

Accommodations are available for both permanent and temporary disabilities. It should be noted that common illnesses such as a cold or the flu do not constitute a disability.

Use of the SAS Exam Centre requires students to make a booking at least 14 days in advance, and no later than November 1 (fall), March 1 (winter) or July 1 (summer). Similarly, new or changed accommodations for online quizzes, tests and exams must be approved at least a week ahead of time.

For more information, contact Accessibility Services at 519-824-4120 ext. 56208, email Accessibility Services or visit the Accessibility Services website.

<mailto:accessibility@uoguelph.ca>

<https://wellness.uoguelph.ca/accessibility/>

Open Learning Program Students

If you are an Open Learning program student who requires academic accommodation, please contact the Academic Assistant to the Executive Director. Please ensure that you contact us before the end of the first week of your course (every semester) in order to avoid any delays in support. Documentation from a health professional is required for all academic accommodations. Please note that all information provided will be held in confidence.

If you require textbooks produced in an alternate format (e.g., DAISY, Braille, large print or eText), please contact the Academic Assistant to the Executive Director at least two months prior to the course start date. If contact is not made within the suggested time frame, support may be delayed. It is recommended that you refer to the course outline before beginning your course in order to determine the required readings.

The provision of academic accommodation is a shared responsibility between OpenEd and the student requesting accommodation. It is recognized that academic accommodations are intended to “level the playing field” for students with disabilities.

Academic Misconduct

The University of Guelph is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity and it is the responsibility of all members of the University community – faculty, staff, and students – to be aware of what constitutes academic misconduct and to do as much as possible to prevent academic offences from occurring. University of Guelph students have the responsibility of abiding by the University's policy on academic misconduct regardless of their location of study; faculty, staff and students have the responsibility of supporting an environment that discourages misconduct. Students need to remain aware that instructors have access to and the right to use electronic and other means of detection.

Please note: Whether or not a student intended to commit academic misconduct is not relevant for a finding of guilt. Hurried or careless submission of assignments does not excuse students from responsibility for verifying the academic integrity of their work before submitting it. Students who are in any doubt as to whether an action on their part could be construed as an academic offence should consult with a faculty member or faculty advisor.

The Academic Misconduct Policy is detailed in the Undergraduate Calendar.

Plagiarism Detection Software

Students should be aware that faculty have the right to use software to aid in the detection of plagiarism or copying and to examine students orally on submitted work. For students found guilty of academic misconduct, serious penalties, up to and including suspension or expulsion from the University can be imposed.

Recording of Materials

Presentations which are made in relation to course work—including lectures—cannot be recorded or copied without the permission of the presenter, whether the instructor, a classmate or guest lecturer. Material recorded with permission is restricted to use for that course unless further permission is granted.

Disclaimer

Please note that the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic may necessitate a revision of the format of course offerings, changes in classroom protocols, and academic schedules. Any such changes will be announced via CourseLink and/or class email.

This includes on-campus scheduling during the semester, mid-terms and final examination schedules. All University-wide decisions will be posted on the COVID-19 website and circulated by email.
<https://news.uoguelph.ca/2019-novel-coronavirus-information/>

Illness

Medical notes will not normally be required for singular instances of academic consideration, although students may be required to provide supporting documentation for multiple missed assessments or when involving a large part of a course (e.g., final exam or major assignment).
