School of English and Theatre Studies

Course Code: ENGL*2310	Course Title: Vampires, Ghosts, and Mummies: Literature and the Supernatural	Date of Offering: Fall 2019
---------------------------	---	--------------------------------

Course Instructor: Pablo Ramirez	Course Format: Lecture

Brief Course Synopsis: While we often dismiss the occult or the supernatural in literature as simple entertainment, this course encourages students to examine how literary works engage the occult and the supernatural in order to address issues of power, race, gender, imperialism and modernity from the nineteenth century to the present. Students will examine how literature of the supernatural engages nineteenth-century theories of progress, social order, race, gender, and science. Students will also have an opportunity to read contemporary representations of the supernatural in order to gain a historical understanding of how literary genres have employed the supernatural.
