Brief Course Synopsis: The focus of this course is Shakespeare's Values. We will look at both the values our culture has attributed to Shakespeare in the past and the present and the values supported in Shakespeare's works. The first is part of a history of reception; the second is part of a movement interested in Shakespeare's ideas and Shakespeare as a thinker. In the second part we will explore various methodologies by which one might arrive at an understanding of what Shakespeare's works value: close reading, keywords, criticism, etc.
