School of English and Theatre Studies

Course Code: ENGL 2120 (02)	Course Title: Critical Practices	Date of Offering: W22
-----------------------------------	-------------------------------------	--------------------------

Course Instructor: G. Campbell	Course Format: Seminar
-----------------------------------	---------------------------

Brief Course Synopsis:

This course offers an overview of the practice of literary criticism through an introduction to literary theory. Students examine issues that develop from reading, interpretation, and evaluation of primary fictional and theoretical texts. Critical responses engage the assumptions and methodological implications of theoretically informed approaches (for example, New Criticism, Marxist, or Lacanian strategies) to literary criticism. The course will also explore issues of poetic form and approaches to cultural studies, broadly defined.
