1 Course Details

1.1 Calendar Description

Continuation of FINA*6545

Pre-Requisites: FINA*6545
Restrictions: Restricted to MFA Studio Art students.

1.2 Course Description

This MFA seminar course provides a forum for discussion and research into the nature and critique of a contemporary art practice with an emphasis on the relationship between theory and practice.

The course is designed to strengthen and broaden the observational and analytical skills of the student that is essential to becoming an active participant in the field of contemporary art as both an observer and producer by providing opportunities to examine and critique the various art historical, critical and theoretical issues confronting the contemporary artist today. Selected readings, accompanying class discussions, studio critiques, visual presentations and written assignments provide a spectrum of communication modes in which to engage with a variety of topics that are both relevant to the student and to the larger community.

The class meets once a week for 3 hours. The first half of each class will be reserved for lectures, discussions and presentations followed by informal studio visits in the second half. The schedule of studio visits, reading list and assignment details will be introduced at the first day of class.

In keeping with the University of Guelph’s emergency response to COVID-19 this course will be primarily delivered online. Video conferencing software will be used for all class lectures, presentations, discussions and studio visits.
NOTE: Planning for online and blended learning continues to develop at the university in response to COVID 19 and changes may occur at the beginning of the fall term on how these classes and studio visits are conducted.

8.4 Copies of Out-of-class Assignments
Keep paper and/or other reliable back-up copies of all out-of-class assignments: you may be asked to resubmit work at any time.

8.5 Accessibility
The University promotes the full participation of students who experience disabilities in their academic programs. To that end, the provision of academic accommodation is a shared responsibility between the University and the student.

When accommodations are needed, the student is required to first register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS). Documentation to substantiate the existence of a disability is required; however, interim accommodations may be possible while that process is underway.

Accommodations are available for both permanent and temporary disabilities. It should be noted that common illnesses such as a cold or the flu do not constitute a disability.
Use of the SAS Exam Centre requires students to book their exams at least 7 days in advance and not later than the 40th Class Day.

For Guelph students, information can be found on the SAS website https://www.uoguelph.ca/sas

For Ridgetown students, information can be found on the Ridgetown SAS website https://www.ridgetownc.com/services/accessibilityservices.cfm

8.6 Academic Integrity

The University of Guelph is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity, and it is the responsibility of all members of the University community—faculty, staff, and students—to be aware of what constitutes academic misconduct and to do as much as possible to prevent academic offences from occurring. University of Guelph students have the responsibility of abiding by the University's policy on academic misconduct regardless of their location of study; faculty, staff, and students have the responsibility of supporting an environment that encourages academic integrity. Students need to remain aware that instructors have access to and the right to use electronic and other means of detection.

Please note: Whether or not a student intended to commit academic misconduct is not relevant for a finding of guilt. Hurried or careless submission of assignments does not excuse students from responsibility for verifying the academic integrity of their work before submitting it. Students who are in any doubt as to whether an action on their part could be construed as an academic offence should consult with a faculty member or faculty advisor.

8.9 Disclaimer

Please note that the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic may necessitate a revision of the format of course offerings and academic schedules. Any such changes will be announced via CourseLink and/or class email. All University-wide decisions will be posted on the COVID-19 website (https://news.uoguelph.ca/2019-novel-coronavirus-information/) and circulated by email.

8.10 Illness

The University will not normally require verification of illness (doctor’s notes) for fall 2020 or winter 2021 semester courses. However, requests for Academic Consideration may still require medical documentation as appropriate.
