

FREN*1300 French Language II
Preliminary Course Outline
Études françaises
School of Languages and Literatures
University of Guelph

Course coordinator: Dr. Frédérique Arroyas (farroyas@uoguelph.ca)

Please note: This is a preliminary web course description only. The department reserves the right to change without notice any information in this description. The final, binding course outline will be distributed in the first class of the semester.*

Description: For students having completed a high school French Immersion program, this course is designed to confirm and consolidate reading, writing, speaking and listening skills at Canadian Language Benchmark Level 5 (CEFR Level B-1 Intermediate), in preparation for advanced language and content-based classes, or simply for independent use of French in a variety of situations. Please note that Francophone students are not permitted in the course and should contact the French Studies student advisor (Prof. D. Cornelio dcorneli@uoguelph.ca) for placement in the appropriate course.

Delivery: Face-to-face instruction (lectures and labs) as well as online activities such as instructional videos, feature films, and writing exercises. Students will be able to work on all skills (oral and written comprehension, oral and written expression, grammar and vocabulary). Each week, in small group labs, students will have the opportunity to participate in debates and discussions.

Course material : We will be using the Top Hat learning platform (Tophat.com) requiring a $60 subscription for the semester.
