

GERM*1110 Introductory German II

Winter 2024

Section(s): 01

School of Languages & Literatures

Credit Weight: 0.50

Preliminary Outline – Subject to Change

See WebAdvisor for instructor information and classroom location.

Course Details

Calendar Description

This course provides for an intensification of the four language skills introduced in GERM*1100. Students will attain a grasp of essential grammatical concepts and the ability to converse comfortably in everyday situations. This course may not normally be taken by anyone who has Grade 12U German.

Pre-Requisites: GERM*1100 or equivalent

Course Description

Willkommen im Kurs GERM*1110 an der Universität Guelph!

This course is a continuation of GERM*1100. During the semester, students will learn more about intercultural differences and complete a basic study of German grammar to achieve greater speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills. GERM*1110 prepares students to progress to more advanced German language courses, as well as may lead you to a semester or a year abroad in Germany or Austria. Studying at a German-speaking university and the credits for the courses you complete there will count at the University of Guelph, regardless of your major.

Learning Resources

Required Resources

Open Access Online Book: (Website)

<https://openeducationalberta.ca/willkommen-deutsch/>

Willkommen: Deutsch für alle (Claudia Kost and Crystal Sawatzky)

Digital Object Identifier (DOI): <https://doi.org/https://dx.doi.org/10.29173/oer8>

E-Book ISBN: 978-1-55195-448-6

Additional Resources

At times, you may be provided with additional materials or resources by the instructional team, either via CourseLink or as handouts.