COURSE OUTLINE

Prerequisite:

LAT*1110 (or equivalent)

Overview:

A continuation of instruction in the reading of the Latin language through the use of relevant Latin texts. This course builds upon the introduction to Latin from LAT*1100 and *1110 (or equivalents) and is designed to enable students to read with fluency Latin texts written over more than two millennia.

Learning Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, an assiduous student will be able to:

- consolidate and utilize their knowledge of the essential forms, grammar, and syntax of the Latin language including:
 - the use of cases and parts of speech
 - declension of nouns and adjectives
 - pronouns
 - conjugation of verbs in all tenses, moods and voices
- construct an intermediate Latin vocabulary
- translate passages of intermediate Latin prose into idiomatic English with limited vocabulary aid
- translate short passages of English prose into Latin with limited vocabulary aid
- demonstrate knowledge of Roman civilization and culture, using adapted written texts

*The course will be delivered synchronously and permit real-time participation from students. However, all course material will be recorded and made available through Courselink to permit later viewing and completion of discussions. It is expected of students to commit 2-3 hours of autonomous work and preparation per scheduled lecture hour.

Texts Required:

Hans Ørberg, Lingua Latina per se illustrata. Pars I Familia Romana.
Jeanne Marie Neumann, Lingua Latina: A College Companion.

Hans Ørberg, Lingua Latina per se illustrata. Pars II: Roma Aeterna, Jeanne Marie Neumann, Lingua Latina: A Companion to Roma Aeterna.

Method of Presentation:

Remote lecture and synchronous in-class discussion. It is expected of students to commit 2-3 hours of autonomous work and preparation per scheduled lecture hour.

Evaluation:

Weekly Engagement Activities (Quizzes, discussions, homework etc.)	20%
Group Seminar (Weeks 3-12)	20%
Group Digital Projects (Weeks 6 and 12 Friday <5:00pm)	2x20% = 40%
Individual Oral Translations (Weeks 7 and 12 by appointment)	2x10% = 20%

Total

100%

Office Hours:

In light of the special circumstances of Fall '20, there will be no in-person Office Hours. I will be available to consult on matters pertaining to this course via Zoom or Teams by appointment (see above). Please feel free to use our synchronous meetings to ask questions.

Email:

For this semester, it is critically important that you identify this course in the subject line of all email communication. You may also wish to ask questions through the Ask Your Instructor feature on Courselink.

Late Work:

Except in the case of situations addressed in the University Regulations (see Undergraduate Calendar), no work will be accepted or graded after the due date. It is the responsibility of the student to approach the instructor well in advance (i.e. more than two weeks) of any due date to discuss remedies to difficulties and obstacles to completing work.

University Statements

Email Communication

As per university regulations, all students are required to check their e-mail account regularly: e-mail is the official route of communication between the University and its students.

When You Cannot Meet a Course Requirement

When you find yourself unable to meet an in-course requirement because of illness or compassionate reasons please advise the course instructor (or designated person, such as a teaching assistant) in writing, with your name, id#, and e-mail contact. The grounds for Academic Consideration are detailed in the Undergraduate and Graduate Calendars.

Drop Date

Students will have until the last day of classes to drop courses without academic penalty. The deadline to drop two-semester courses will be the last day of classes in the second semester. This applies to all students (undergraduate, graduate and diploma) except for Doctor of Veterinary Medicine and Associate Diploma in Veterinary Technology (conventional and alternative delivery) students. The regulations and procedures for course registration are available in their respective Academic Calendars.

Copies of Out-of-class Assignments

Keep paper and/or other reliable back-up copies of all out-of-class assignments: you may be asked to resubmit work at any time.

Accessibility

The University promotes the full participation of students who experience disabilities in their academic programs. To that end, the provision of academic accommodation is a shared responsibility between the University and the student.

When accommodations are needed, the student is required to first register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS). Documentation to substantiate the existence of a disability is required; however, interim accommodations may be possible while that process is underway.

Accommodations are available for both permanent and temporary disabilities. It should be noted that common illnesses such as a cold or the flu do not constitute a disability.

Use of the SAS Exam Centre requires students to book their exams at least 7 days in advance and not later than the 40th Class Day.

For Guelph students, information can be found on the SAS website <https://www.uoguelph.ca/sas>

Academic Integrity

The University of Guelph is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity, and it is the responsibility of all members of the University community-faculty, staff, and students-to be aware of what constitutes academic misconduct and to do as much as possible to prevent academic offences from occurring. University of Guelph students have the responsibility of abiding by the University's policy on academic misconduct regardless of their location of study; faculty, staff, and students have the responsibility of supporting an environment that encourages academic integrity. Students need to remain aware that instructors have access to and the right to use electronic and other means of detection.

Please note: Whether or not a student intended to commit academic misconduct is not relevant for a finding of guilt. Hurried or careless submission of assignments does not excuse students from responsibility for verifying the academic integrity of their work before submitting it. Students who are in any doubt as to whether an action on their part could be construed as an academic offence should consult with a faculty member or faculty advisor.

Disclaimer

Please note that the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic may necessitate a revision of the format of course offerings and academic schedules. Any such changes will be announced via CourseLink and/or class email. All University-wide decisions will be posted on the COVID-19 website (<https://news.uoguelph.ca/2019-novel-coronavirus-information/>) and circulated by email.

Illness

The University will not normally require verification of illness (doctor's notes) for fall 2020 or winter

2021 semester courses. However, requests for Academic Consideration may still require medical documentation as appropriate.
