Fall 2022
Section(s): C01

School of Fine Art and Music
Credit Weight: 0.25
Version 1.00 - September 01, 2022

---

1 Course Details

1.1 Calendar Description

This course is a continuation of MUSC*3910.

Pre-Requisites: MUSC*3910
Equates: MUSC*3240
Restrictions: Instructor consent required.

1.2 Course Description

Course credit may be earned through participation in one of several University of Guelph Choirs during Fall and Winter semesters. Through study and performance of selected choral music, students develop an understanding of artistic creation through direct involvement therein. Through improvisation and creative activities, students acquire an enriched appreciation of the relational aspects of music and music-making. Rehearsals and performances build upon the students' accumulated knowledge of musical techniques and skills, while study of a given repertoire develops awareness of historical and stylistic trends in music and of the values associated with music-making throughout the world. For Fall 2022, two (2) distanced public performance events have been planned; if such events become inconsistent with Public Health, then "performances" will consist of Virtual Choir projects, improvising, and recorded performances. Vocal development enhances confidence and enables more meaningful self-expression. Synchronous rehearsals, leadership assignments, and small-group discussions are designed to build community and model performance skills, especially if/when public performance is not possible. Creative projects engage students in imaginative applications of their skills, and in building connections between disciplines. Self-reflection facilitates personal transformation and communal growth.

1.3 Timetable

Gryphon Singers (Section 01) Mondays and Wednesdays 5:30 – 6:50 p.m.

Symphonic Choir (Section 02) Tuesdays, 7:15 – 9:45 pm

Timetable is subject to change. Please see WebAdvisor for the latest information.

1.4 Final Exam

Students individually perform – for the conductor only - their Final Singing Test, which will consist of excerpts of repertoire learned during these rehearsals. The Final Exam (aka Singing Test) is individually scheduled during Final Exam weeks, according to student availability.

Exam time and location is subject to change. Please see WebAdvisor for the latest information.

3 Learning Resources

3.1 Required Resources

Musical scores (Other)

Repertoire for the Choir is chosen by the conductor - with consideration for the ability of the ensemble, overall balance, and variety – and given to each chorister in person, sent by email (legal scans) to print/read from tablets, or by mail, if necessary. Students are required to purchase the music, which acts as the course “text”; however, the cost does not exceed $25. per semester.

4 Learning Outcomes

4.1 Course Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course, you should be able to:

1. Communicate music more accurately and expressively through increased vocal abilities.
2. Articulate specific aspects (including form, line, texture, and orchestration) of performance practice in at least THREE historical eras.
3. Adapt your vocal production in order to perform complex musical repertoire, including the bel canto melismatic passages of Baroque scores, the lyrical melodies of a 19th-century motet, and the constantly shifting rhythmic patterns of 21st-century scores.
4. Integrate musical literacy with vocal skills to interpret musical scores.

5. Contribute to global understanding through the rehearsal and performance of musics from many traditions.

  6. Identify performance values that are unique to various styles and traditions and incorporate these values in performance.

  7. Model standards of behaviour for the choral professional (singer and leader).

  8. Aurally analyze fundamental aspects of pitch, rhythm, and vocal tone.

  9. Apply in a professional scenario cutting-edge Experiential Learning skills now expected of professional musicians, including self-recording, singing/playing to a click-track, balancing and blending virtually, disseminating performance materials, self-reflection, and potentially self-promotion.

  10. Demonstrate teaching and performance of voice-building skills.

5 Teaching and Learning Activities

A choir is a small community consisting of and benefitting from the many unique gifts and attributes of each chorister. The individual chorister contributes to and learns from these group activities: rehearsal, discussion, and performance. Significant individual preparation prior to rehearsals allows singers to concentrate on working together as a team toward common goals, for the ultimate benefit of everyone involved.

5.1 Lecture

Topics: In case of cancellation of the weekly rehearsal (see below under Seminar) the students receive recorded lecture-demonstrations to guide repertoire learning, develop vocal skills, and/or expand musical awareness. In most cases, these should be reviewed by students BEFORE the next Rehearsal, and students will be required to demonstrate their understanding of the material via a brief review during the next Rehearsal or in the testing evaluations.

5.2 Seminar

Weekly during rehearsal times listed for each ensemble

Topics: Weekly during rehearsal times listed for each ensemble

For the weekly "seminar" [= Rehearsal], students attend in-person rehearsals of 2.5 hours once/week (Symphonic Choir, Section 02) OR 80 minutes 2 times/week (Gryphon Singers, Section 01), during which all participants engage with the musical and vocal challenges encountered in the repertoire, as preparation for performances and recordings.

6 Assessments

Process governing Assessments in this course

1. The weekly ensemble REHEARSALS (Monday and Wednesday afternoons for Gryphon Singers, and Tuesday evenings for Symphonic Choir) are central to the ensemble's growth as a musical community and to the individual singer's engaged contribution to this community. Therefore, it is IMPERATIVE that each singer (student) attend all Rehearsals and concerts.

2. Students submit audio-recorded excerpts of the repertoire, which the professor assesses to ensure that the student is progressing at a rate appropriate to this course level and to the performance standards of the ensemble. In some cases, these recordings are also used to compile a Virtual Choir recording (instead of or in addition to live performance).
3. The professor responds and gives feedback regularly via email or the Course Link Feedback loop, which is used to improve the next submission.
4. Students perform Midterm and Final Exams, applying the professor's feedback from weekly recordings, as well as the knowledge, skills and understanding gleaned during rehearsals and performances.

6.1 Marking Schemes & Distributions

Participation and Engagement: 25%

Proficiency: 25%

Midterm Test: 10%

Final Singing Test: 20%

Leadership/Creative/Research Project 20%

6.2 Assessment Details

Participation and engagement (25%)

Date: Mon, Sep 12 - Sat, Dec 3

Assessed Weekly, synchronous rehearsal (See "Seminar").

Participation is demonstrated by punctuality, attentiveness, respect for others and attention to the Conductor; also essential to "participation" are rehearsal skills (score-marking, balance, blend and continuity of vocal tone), and preparedness for rehearsals, concerts and recordings. Evaluated at every rehearsal and concert. Concert participation is mandatory to pass the course.

Proficiency Recordings (25%)

Date: Recordings submitted to Course Link Dropbox

During Weeks 4, 8, 11, students demonstrate individual security of part, with attention to all musical and vocal details, by submitting recordings of assigned excerpts of the repertoire that has been rehearsed. Instructor feedback from these submissions helps the student to prepare for future submissions/performance, and for the Final Singing Test.

For these 3 recorded submissions (approximately 8% each, due week 4, 8, 11), categories for assessment include accurate pitch and rhythm, tuning, tone, articulation, phrasing, blending, and nuance.

Midterm Singing Test (10%)

Students individually perform (live, in-person) – for the conductor only - their Midterm Singing Test, which will consist of excerpts of repertoire learned during these rehearsals. The Midterm Singing Test is individually scheduled during Week 6-7, according to student availability.

Final Singing Test/Exam (20%)

Date: Mon, Dec 5 - Wed, Dec 14

Students demonstrate individual security of part, with attention to all musical and vocal details, by performing live, (in-person but privately, for the conductor only) assigned excerpts of the repertoire that has been rehearsed. Individually scheduled during Final Exam weeks, according to student availability.

Leadership/Creative/Research Project (Student Choice) (20%)

Date: Submitted to Course Link Dropbox

Students who choose Leadership will consult with the instructor to contribute in one or more ways to the administration, management, or social organization of a choral ensemble (e.g. acting as section leader, serving on the choir committee, helping with administrative tasks, providing publicity and promotion, helping with physical set-up, or by leading a warm-up in consultation with the Conductor); Students who choose Research will submit a written or recorded summary of their analysis of one or more of the pieces (totally approximately 10 minutes) in our current repertoire; Students who choose Creative Project will actualize their imaginative ideas about the choir, the music, the voice, or associated aspects. Examples of suitable projects will be posted on Course Link; in all cases, students should present a proposal to the Conductor by Week 6, receive feedback by Week 8, and finalize the project by Week 9.

7 Course Statements

7.1 Principles governing the delivery of this course Fall 2022

*Live performance provides an unparalleled opportunity to share music with others; at the same time, we focus on enhanced processes (creative and iterative), intensive skill development, novel approaches, developing leadership skills, creative exploration, and potential research possibilities.

*Virtual ensemble “performance” products are also potential means to enhance aural understanding, provide consummation, and act as promotional material. The potential for a live performance exists but cannot be guaranteed.

8 University Statements

8.1 Email Communication

As per university regulations, all students are required to check their e-mail account regularly: e-mail is the official route of communication between the University and its students.

8.2 When You Cannot Meet a Course Requirement

When you find yourself unable to meet an in-course requirement because of illness or compassionate reasons please advise the course instructor (or designated person, such as a teaching assistant) in writing, with your name, id#, and e-mail contact. The grounds for Academic Consideration are detailed in the Undergraduate and Graduate Calendars.

8.3 Drop Date

Students will have until the last day of classes to drop courses without academic penalty. The deadline to drop two-semester courses will be the last day of classes in the second semester. This applies to all students (undergraduate, graduate and diploma) except for Doctor of Veterinary Medicine and Associate Diploma in Veterinary Technology (conventional and alternative delivery) students. The regulations and procedures for course registration are available in their respective Academic Calendars.

8.4 Copies of Out-of-class Assignments

Keep paper and/or other reliable back-up copies of all out-of-class assignments: you may be asked to resubmit work at any time.

8.5 Accessibility

The University promotes the full participation of students who experience disabilities in their academic programs. To that end, the provision of academic accommodation is a shared responsibility between the University and the student.

When accommodations are needed, the student is required to first register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS). Documentation to substantiate the existence of a disability is required; however, interim accommodations may be possible while that process is underway.

Accommodations are available for both permanent and temporary disabilities. It should be noted that common illnesses such as a cold or the flu do not constitute a disability.

Use of the SAS Exam Centre requires students to make a booking at least 14 days in advance, and no later than November 1 (fall), March 1 (winter) or July 1 (summer). Similarly, new or changed accommodations for online quizzes, tests and exams must be approved at least a week ahead of time.

For Guelph students, information can be found on the SAS website
<https://www.uoguelph.ca/sas>

For Ridgetown students, information can be found on the Ridgetown SAS website
<https://www.ridgetownc.com/services/accessibilityservices.cfm>

8.6 Academic Integrity

The University of Guelph is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity, and it is the responsibility of all members of the University community—faculty, staff, and students—to be aware of what constitutes academic misconduct and to do as much as possible to prevent academic offences from occurring. University of Guelph students have the responsibility of abiding by the University's policy on academic misconduct regardless of their location of study; faculty, staff, and students have the responsibility of supporting an environment that encourages academic integrity. Students need to remain aware that instructors have access to and the right to use electronic and other means of detection.

Please note: Whether or not a student intended to commit academic misconduct is not relevant for a finding of guilt. Hurried or careless submission of assignments does not excuse students from responsibility for verifying the academic integrity of their work before submitting it. Students who are in any doubt as to whether an action on their part could be construed as an academic offence should consult with a faculty member or faculty advisor.

8.7 Recording of Materials

Presentations that are made in relation to course work - including lectures - cannot be recorded or copied without the permission of the presenter, whether the instructor, a student, or guest lecturer. Material recorded with permission is restricted to use for that course unless further permission is granted.

8.8 Resources

The Academic Calendars are the source of information about the University of Guelph's procedures, policies, and regulations that apply to undergraduate, graduate, and diploma programs.

8.9 Disclaimer

Please note that the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic may necessitate a revision of the format of course offerings, changes in classroom protocols, and academic schedules. Any such changes will be announced via CourseLink and/or class email.

This includes on-campus scheduling during the semester, mid-terms and final examination schedules. All University-wide decisions will be posted on the COVID-19 website (<https://news.uoguelph.ca/2019-novel-coronavirus-information/>) and circulated by email.

8.10 Illness

Medical notes will not normally be required for singular instances of academic consideration, although students may be required to provide supporting documentation for multiple missed assessments or when involving a large part of a course (e.g.. final exam or major assignment).
