PHIL*2080 Animals in Philosophy

Fall 2020

Section: DE01

Department of Philosophy

Credit Weight: 0.50

Course Details

Calendar Description

This course will examine the concept of the animal itself, the nature of animal minds, the importance of species membership, and the relationship between human and non-human animals. It will discuss applied issues related to animal welfare, wildlife, agriculture, experimentation, and the environment. It will also explore some of the ethical, social, political and feminist perspectives on animals as they are addressed by philosophers. As such, the course aims to enable students to analyze growing concerns that animals play in our lives.

Pre-Requisite(s): 2.00 Credits or (1 of PHIL*1000, PHIL*1010, PHIL*1050)

Co-Requisite(s): None

I have been doing research and teaching classes at the University of Guelph for over ten years. The courses I teach are usually a combination of philosophical and biological topics. My research is also at the intersection between these two disciplines. For instance, I am working on identifying the reasons that biodiversity is valuable. I am also conducting research on the social behaviour of octopuses and trying to understand how their behaviour and physiology provide clues about their mental lives. Many of these topics will be addressed in this course. I hope that you find the material inspiring and challenging.

Learning Outcomes

Course Learning Outcomes

[Enter the long description of the course]

By the end of this course, you should be able to:

1. Describe and compare ancient and historical views of animals in both Western and non-Western philosophy

2. Identify, explain and understand issues, concepts and arguments related to the study of animal minds, consciousness, self-awareness, beliefs, etc.

3. Explicate and analyze the main arguments of at least two philosophers in short written critiques

4. Examine and critically evaluate the arguments of philosophers on the moral value of animals, social and political views of animals and issues of justice

5. Apply various views on animals to practical issues involving the use of animals in such things as agriculture, experimentation and research

6. Gain an understanding of how philosophical topics related to animals are approached in both analytic and continental traditions

7. The ability to engage in debates about animal welfare, animal ethics and the use of animals in various industries

Teaching and Learning Activities

Method of Learning
In this course students are exposed to a variety of philosophical positions to help them explore the subject of non-human animals. Through assigned readings and course-based materials, students will examine issue from a variety of philosophical positions. Activities and assignments provides students with an opportunity to apply course content and concepts so that they can develop informed positions on the ethical considerations relating to animals.

Course Structure

This course has seven units in total. Unit length varies depending on the range of materials to be covered.

Units 01: Introduction to the History of Animals in Philosophy (two weeks in length)

Unit 02: Animal Minds and Consciousness (three weeks in length)

Unit 03: Species: Definitions, Concepts, Issues (one week in length)

Unit 04: Animality and the Animal Other – Continental Philosophy and Animals (one week in length)

Unit 05: Animals and Feminist Philosophy (two weeks in length)

Unit 06: Animals and Ethics (two weeks in length)

Unit 07: Animals in Social/Political Philosophy (one week in length)

What to Expect for Each Unit

Each unit is one scrolling page.

Every unit begins with an Introduction, which is followed by the Learning Outcomes and Focus Questions. The Focus Questions are there to help guide your thinking when it comes to the assigned readings. It is strongly recommended that you review the Focus Questions before you begin the unit’s assigned readings.

The Professor's Commentary section provides an overview of key unit concepts. Further resources are suggested for you in ‘Would You Like to Know More?’ Boxes. These are supplementary resources that you can use to explore topics of personal interest. They are not considered “assessible” materials.

The Key Concepts, Terms, Theories, and Argument section outlines some of the main take-aways for the unit, while the ‘At Issue’ section provides you with a prompt to reflect on the impact of those important concepts and ideas.

Each unit ends with a Summary and Checklist. This section summarizes the unit’s key learnings and prompts you to revisit the unit learning outcomes as a way for you to check your understanding of the unit’s materials.

Assessment Descriptions

Weekly Quizzes

Each quiz is designed to assess and measure the knowledge you gain from studying the content from specific units. Preparing for each quiz will help you to identify and explain the major concepts, theories, and ideologies covered in the course.

Discussion Participation

An important aspect of the learning experience in this course is the online discussions which require you to respond to different topic questions. This experience provides you with the opportunity to share the knowledge you gained in the course and to engage in a dialogue with your classmates. There are specific discussion questions to respond to for each week of the course.

Writing Assignments

Throughout this course, you are asked to write two (2) short essays. The short essays are designed to:

- Give you an opportunity to think about and synthesize your knowledge of the materials, drawn from our study over a number of recent units
- Demonstrate your ability to apply one or more of the course concepts, theories, views and arguments to specific issues in relation to animals and philosophy
- Demonstrate all your hard work in keeping up with assigned readings
- Practice writing concisely, accurately and professionally and analytically

Final Exam

This course requires the use of Respondus LockDown Browser to proctor your online final exam within CourseLink. Use of Lockdown Browser has been implemented to maintain the academic integrity of the final exam. You must download and install LockDown Browser to complete the practice test and final exam.

The final exam will be cumulative and cover all course material from all the units and all required readings. The exam will be essay-based. The exam will be 2 hours and will occur during the exam period, as scheduled by the university.

More information about the final exam will be posted in the course Announcements closer to the end of the course.

The final exam will be delivered online via the Quizzes tool. The exam is 2 hours in length and will be held on Thursday, December 17. To accommodate students who may be located in various time zones, the exam will be available beginning at 2:30pm to 3:30pm Eastern Time (ET). You can enter the exam at any point during this window of time but will only have 2 hours to complete it from when you start writing. For example, if you start writing the exam by 3:00 pm, you will have until 5:00 pm to complete it. After 3:30 pm ET you will no longer be able to enter the exam environment.

Similar to a sit-down exam where you must arrive prior to the start of the exam, it is highly recommended that you enter the online exam environment in Respondus at least 20-30 minutes before the end of the available window to allow enough time for you to complete the Respondus Startup Sequence and ensure that you have the full two hours for the exam.

Please be sure to review the Using Respondus Lockdown Browser instructions by selecting Content on the navbar to locate Assessments in the table of contents panel.

Important Note: There is a mandatory practice test that you are required to take before the online exam. The purpose of the practice test is to ensure that Respondus LockDown Browser is set up properly and that you are comfortable using the software.

If you have any questions regarding the use of Respondus Lockdown Browser or if you encounter any technical issues during the practice test or final exam, please contact CourseLink Support at courselink@uoguelph.ca or 519-824-4120 ext. 56939.

University of Guelph degree and associate diploma students must check WebAdvisor for their examination schedule. Open Learning program students must check the Open Learning Program Final Examination Schedule for their examination schedule.

Course Technology Requirements and Technical Support
CourseLink System Requirements

You are responsible for ensuring that your computer system meets the necessary system requirements. Use the browser check tool to ensure your browser settings are compatible and up to date. (Results will be displayed in a new browser window).

http://spaces.uoguelph.ca/ed/system-requirements/

Respondus LockDown Browser Requirements

Respondus LockDown Browser is a locked browser for taking quizzes in CourseLink. It prevents you from printing and copying; using other operating software; using search engines (e.g., going to another URL); communicating via instant messaging; and it blocks non-web-related software (e.g., Adobe PDF, Microsoft Word).

In order to use Respondus LockDown Browser, you must meet the following technical requirements so that you can take the practice test and final exam:

1. Operating Systems: Windows 10, 8, 7; Mac OS X 10.10 or higher.
2. Memory: Windows 2 GB RAM; Mac 512 MB RAM.
3. For Mac users: Safari must function properly on the computer.
4. Mac users must have Adobe Flash Player installed to Safari, even if a different browser is normally used.
5. A broadband Internet connection. It is recommended that you access the Internet via a wired connection.

If you have any concerns about meeting system requirements, contact CourseLink Support. They will work with you to find alternative solutions or make alternative arrangements.

http://spaces.uoguelph.ca/ed/contact-us/

Technical Skills

As part of your online experience, you are expected to use a variety of technology as part of your learning:

- Manage files and folders on your computer (e.g., save, name, copy, backup, rename, delete, and check properties);
- Install software, security, and virus protection;
- Use office applications (e.g., Word, PowerPoint, Excel, or similar) to create documents;
- Be comfortable uploading and downloading saved files;
- Communicate using email (e.g., create, receive, reply, print, send, download, and open attachments);
• Navigate the CourseLink learning environment and use the essential tools, such as Dropbox, Quizzes, Discussions, and Grades (the instructions for this are given in your course);

• Access, navigate, and search the Internet using a web browser (e.g., Firefox, Internet Explorer); and

• Perform online research using various search engines (e.g., Google) and library databases.

Technical Support

If you need any assistance with the software tools or the CourseLink website, contact CourseLink Support.

Acceptable Use

The University of Guelph has an Acceptable Use Policy, which you are expected to adhere to.

https://www.uoguelph.ca/ccs/infosec/aup

Communicating with Your Instructor

During the course, your instructor will interact with you on various course matters on the course website using the following ways of communication:

• Announcements: The instructor will use Announcements on the Course Home page to provide you with course reminders and updates. Please check this section frequently for course updates from your instructor.

• Ask Your Instructor Discussion: Use this discussion forum to ask questions of your instructor about content or course-related issues with which you are unfamiliar. If you encounter difficulties, the instructor is here to help you. Please post general course-related questions to the discussion forum so that all students have an opportunity to review the response. To access this discussion forum, select Discussions from the Tools dropdown menu.

- Email: If you have a conflict that prevents you from completing course requirements, or have a question concerning a personal matter, you can send your instructor a private message by email. The instructor will respond to your email within 48 to 72 hours.

- Zoom: If you have a complex question you would like to discuss with your instructor, you may book a Zoom meeting (via email). Zoom meetings depend on the availability of you and the instructor, and are booked on a first come first served basis.

Netiquette Expectations

For distance education courses, the course website is considered the classroom and the same protections, expectations, guidelines, and regulations used in face-to-face settings apply, plus other policies and considerations that come into play specifically because these courses are online.

Inappropriate online behaviour will not be tolerated. Examples of inappropriate online behaviour include:

- Posting inflammatory messages about your instructor or fellow students;
- Using obscene or offensive language online;
- Copying or presenting someone else's work as your own;
- Adapting information from the Internet without using proper citations or references;
- Buying or selling term papers or assignments;
- Posting or selling course materials to course notes websites;
- Having someone else complete your quiz or completing a quiz for/with another student;
- Stating false claims about lost quiz answers or other assignment submissions;
- Threatening or harassing a student or instructor online;
- Discriminating against fellow students, instructors, and/or TAs;
- Using the course website to promote profit-driven products or services;
- Attempting to compromise the security or functionality of the learning management system;
- Sharing your username and password; and
- Recording lectures without the permission of the instructor.
Submission of Assignments to Dropbox

All written assignments for this course should be submitted electronically via the online Dropbox tool. When submitting your assignments using the Dropbox tool, do not leave the page until your assignment has successfully uploaded. To verify that your submission was complete, you can view the submission history immediately after the upload to see which files uploaded successfully. The system will also email you a receipt. Save this email receipt as proof of submission.

Be sure to keep a back-up copy of all of your assignments in the event that they are lost in transition. In order to avoid any last-minute computer problems, your instructor strongly recommend you save your assignments to a cloud-based file storage (e.g., Google Docs), or send to your email account, so that should something happen to your computer, the assignment could still be submitted on time or re-submitted.

It is your responsibility to submit your assignments on time as specified on the Schedule. Be sure to check the technical requirements and make sure you have the proper computer, that you have a supported browser, and that you have reliable Internet access. Remember that technical difficulty is not an excuse not to turn in your assignment on time. Don’t wait until the last minute as you may get behind in your work.

If, for some reason, you have a technical difficulty when submitting your assignment electronically, please contact your instructor or CourseLink Support.

http://spaces.uoguelph.ca/ed/contact-us/

Late Policy

If you choose to submit your individual assignments to the Dropbox tool late, the full allocated mark will be reduced by 5% per day after the deadline for the submission of the assignment to a limit of six days at which time access to the Dropbox folder will be closed.

Extensions will be considered for medical reasons or other extenuating circumstances. If you require an extension, discuss this with the instructor as soon as possible and well before the due date. Barring exceptional circumstances, extensions will not be granted once the due date has passed. These rules are not designed to be arbitrary, nor are they inflexible. They are designed to keep you organized, to ensure that all students have the same amount of time to work on assignments, and to help to return marked materials to you in the shortest possible time.

Obtaining Grades and Feedback

Unofficial assessment marks will be available in the Grades tool of the course website.

Your instructor will have grades posted online within 2 weeks of the submission deadline, if the assignment was submitted on time. Once your assignments are marked you can view your grades on the course website by selecting Grades from the Tools dropdown menu on the navbar. Your course will remain open to you for seven days following the last day of the final exam period.

University of Guelph degree students can access their final grade by logging into WebAdvisor (using your U of G central ID). Open Learning program students should log in to the OpenEd Student Portal to view their final grade (using the same username and password you have been using for your courses).

https://webadvisor.uoguelph.ca
https://courses.opened.uoguelph.ca/portal/logon.do?method=load

Rights and Responsibilities When Learning Online

For distance education (DE) courses, the course website is considered the classroom and the same protections, expectations, guidelines, and regulations used in face-to-face settings apply, plus other policies and considerations that come into play specifically because these courses are online.

For more information on your rights and responsibilities when learning in the online environment, visit Rights and Responsibilities.

http://opened.uoguelph.ca/student-resources/rights-and-responsibilities

Turnitin Originality Check

In this course, your instructor will be using Turnitin, integrated with the CourseLink Dropbox tool, to detect possible plagiarism, unauthorized collaboration or copying as part of the ongoing efforts to maintain academic integrity at the University of Guelph.

All individual assignments submitted to the Dropbox tool will be included as source documents in the Turnitin.com reference database solely for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of such papers. Use of the Turnitin.com service is subject to the Usage Policy posted on the Turnitin.com site.

A major benefit of using Turnitin is that you will be able to educate and empower yourself in preventing academic misconduct. In this course, you may screen your own assignments through Turnitin as many times as you wish before the due date. You will be able to see and print reports that show you exactly where you have properly and improperly referenced the outside sources and materials in your assignment.

Copies of Assignments

Keep paper and/or other reliable back-up copies of all assignments: you may be asked to resubmit work at any time.

Accessibility

The University of Guelph is committed to creating a barrier-free environment. Providing services for students is a shared responsibility among students, faculty and administrators. This relationship is based on respect of individual rights, the dignity of the individual and the University community’s shared commitment to an open and supportive learning environment.

University of Guelph Degree Students

Students requiring service or accommodation, whether due to an identified, ongoing disability or a short-term disability should contact Accessibility Services as soon as possible.

For more information, contact Accessibility Services at 519-824-4120 ext. 56208, email Accessibility Services or visit the Accessibility Services website.

Open Learning Program Students

If you are an Open Learning program student who requires academic accommodation, please contact the Academic Assistant to the Director. Please ensure that you contact us before the end of the first week of your course (every semester) in order to avoid any delays in support. Documentation from a health professional is required for all academic accommodations. Please note that all information provided will be held in confidence.

If you require textbooks produced in an alternate format (e.g., DAISY, Braille, large print or eText), please contact the Academic Assistant to the Director at least two months prior to the course start date. If contact is not made within the suggested time frame, support may be delayed. It is recommended that you refer to the course outline before beginning your course in order to determine the required readings.
The provision of academic accommodation is a shared responsibility between OpenEd and the student requesting accommodation. It is recognized that academic accommodations are intended to “level the playing field” for students with disabilities.

Academic Misconduct

The University of Guelph is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity and it is the responsibility of all members of the University community – faculty, staff, and students – to be aware of what constitutes academic misconduct and to do as much as possible to prevent academic offences from occurring. University of Guelph students have the responsibility of abiding by the University’s policy on academic misconduct regardless of their location of study; faculty, staff and students have the responsibility of supporting an environment that discourages misconduct. Students need to remain aware that instructors have access to and the right to use electronic and other means of detection.

Please note: Whether or not a student intended to commit academic misconduct is not relevant for a finding of guilt. Hurried or careless submission of assignments does not excuse students from responsibility for verifying the academic integrity of their work before submitting it. Students who are in any doubt as to whether an action on their part could be construed as an academic offence should consult with a faculty member or faculty advisor.

The Academic Misconduct Policy is detailed in the Undergraduate Calendar.

Please note that the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic may necessitate a revision of the format of course offerings and academic schedules. Any such changes will be announced via CourseLink and/or class email. All University-wide decisions will be posted on the COVID-19 website and circulated by email.

Illness

The University will not require verification of illness (doctor's notes) for the Fall 2020 or Winter 2021 semesters.
