

SART*2800 Experimental Studio I

Winter 2022

Section(s): C01

School of Fine Art and Music

Credit Weight: 0.50

Version 1.00 - November 12, 2021

1 Course Details

1.1 Calendar Description

This course introduces students to different processes used by the contemporary studio artist, with an emphasis on time-based and interdisciplinary forms of production. Students will be actively engaged in exploring a variety of skills, processes and concepts, in the development of video and audio art, artist multiples, and site-specific interventions. An understanding of the technical, theoretical, and historical concerns of experimental art practices will provide a solid base for upper level courses, where students will develop a stronger capacity to work with media that are appropriate to realize their ideas.

Pre-Requisites: (1 of ARTH*1220, ARTH*1510, ARTH*1520, ARTH*2220), SART*1050, SART*1060

Co-Requisites: SART*1050 can be taken as co-requisite

Restrictions: This is a Priority Access Course. Enrolment may be restricted to particular programs, specializations, majors or semester levels during certain periods. Please see the department for more information.

1.2 Course Description

This course is designed as a laboratory for experimentation where students will be actively engaged in exploring a variety of methodologies, ideas, and technical skills for contemporary art making.

The studio assignments and readings/podcasts are designed to provide an introductory understanding of formative movements and methodologies of contemporary art, while encouraging a working process grounded in conceptual art.

Skills in a variety of media will be investigated: video, audio, artists multiples, using everyday objects and actions, alongside experimental and conceptual methodologies.

Participation in all studio activities and discussions is critical to learning and producing successful interpretations of assignments.

1.3 Timetable

A class schedule will be distributed in the first class - subject to changes if necessary.

1.4 Final Exam

Critiques and deadlines for assignments will be listed on the class schedule distributed in the first class.

7.1 LAB FEE:

SPECIAL NOTE DURING COVID 19 - ALTERNATE DELIVERY OF COURSES IN EXPERIMENTAL STUDIO:

Main platforms for delivery: In person in studio, and Zoom for some synchronous or asynchronous meetings, demos and lectures and online blog/links. May also use workbooks, and materials kits. Studio access may change as conditions evolve.

Technologies/equipment students will need to participate in courses: Smart phones, computer with video/audio capacity and internet access, free software, paper, notebooks/drawing media, common household materials.

Comments: Courses in Experimental Studio will be delivered with assignments and exercises adapted to be made safely at home, or outdoors according to the public health advisories of the moment. Students can use technologies available at home (smart phones etc.) and free online software, along with household materials and spaces to complete their assignments. Together we will consider how to make art from the stuff of everyday life, and how to be artists now - in this unique historical moment. Courses will include both live and recorded materials - including technical demos, readings and podcasts, guided walks, group chats, critiques, and creative activities performed variously apart, or together. Students will post works in progress, and finished works publicly on-line in various formats. Ideas, exercises, and research - will be emphasized over the production of major finished projects.

ASSIGNMENTS AND ASSESSMENT CRITERIA FOR THIS COURSE WILL BE RESPONSIVE TO CHANGING CIRCUMSTANCES, AND ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE. LEARNING OUTCOMES WILL REMAIN THE SAME.

LAB FEE:

A compulsory materials fee will be charged for materials provided in support of required course projects. The amount will be invoiced by the Office of the Bursar and paid directly with your tuition payment – no additional payment is necessary. THE LAB FEE WILL NOT BE REFUNDED AFTER THE THIRD WEEK OF CLASSES.

Items Provided by Lab Fee:

Headphones, digital storage accessories, paper and ink, and other small supplies as may be needed to produce and install projects.

Students will need to supply some basic tools and supplies to complete the course -

-Mobile phone with camera/video capabilities or digital camera

- computer with access to free online software for editing video/audio

- hard drive/USB for data storage

- Regular household materials

We will make every effort to accommodate all students with whatever tools and supplies you may have at hand - to practice resourcefulness, and responsiveness to the emergency pandemic restrictions and situation.

8.4 Copies of Out-of-class Assignments

Keep paper and/or other reliable back-up copies of all out-of-class assignments: you may be asked to resubmit work at any time.

8.5 Accessibility

The University promotes the full participation of students who experience disabilities in their academic programs. To that end, the provision of academic accommodation is a shared responsibility between the University and the student.

When accommodations are needed, the student is required to first register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS). Documentation to substantiate the existence of a disability is required; however, interim accommodations may be possible while that process is underway.

Accommodations are available for both permanent and temporary disabilities. It should be noted that common illnesses such as a cold or the flu do not constitute a disability.

Use of the SAS Exam Centre requires students to book their exams at least 7 days in advance and not later than the 40th Class Day.

For Guelph students, information can be found on the SAS website

<https://www.uoguelph.ca/sas>

For Ridgetown students, information can be found on the Ridgetown SAS website

8.6 Academic Integrity

The University of Guelph is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity, and it is the responsibility of all members of the University community-faculty, staff, and students-to be aware of what constitutes academic misconduct and to do as much as possible to prevent academic offences from occurring. University of Guelph students have the responsibility of abiding by the University's policy on academic misconduct regardless of their location of study; faculty, staff, and students have the responsibility of supporting an environment that encourages academic integrity. Students need to remain aware that instructors have access to and the right to use electronic and other means of detection.

Please note: Whether or not a student intended to commit academic misconduct is not relevant for a finding of guilt. Hurried or careless submission of assignments does not excuse students from responsibility for verifying the academic integrity of their work before submitting it. Students who are in any doubt as to whether an action on their part could be construed as an academic offence should consult with a faculty member or faculty advisor.

8.9 Disclaimer

Please note that the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic may necessitate a revision of the format of course offerings, changes in classroom protocols, and academic schedules. Any such changes will be announced via CourseLink and/or class email.

This includes on-campus scheduling during the semester, mid-terms and final examination schedules. All University-wide decisions will be posted on the COVID-19 website (<https://news.uoguelph.ca/2019-novel-coronavirus-information/>) and circulated by email.

8.10 Illness

Medical notes will not normally be required for singular instances of academic consideration, although students may be required to provide supporting documentation for multiple missed assessments or when involving a large part of a course (e.g.. final exam or major assignment).

8.11 Covid-19 Safety Protocols
