

SART*4130 Drawing IV

Winter 2021

Section(s): C01

School of Fine Art and Music

Credit Weight: 1.00

Version 1.00 - November 06, 2020

1 Course Details

1.1 Calendar Description

This is an advanced course which explores drawing through individually oriented production supported by critical study of diverse contemporary approaches to the medium. In this course drawings will continue to be considered in the light of semiotic theory in order to examine the production and interpretation of meaning.

Pre-Requisites:

SART*4090

Restrictions:

Registration is limited to students registered in the Studio Art Major with an average of 70% in all ARTH and SART course attempts. This is a Priority Access Course. Some restrictions may apply during some time periods.

1.2 Course Description

SART*4130 Drawing IV follows directly from SART*4090 Drawing III. In that class students will have begun to identify areas within the breadth of drawing practices that of interest to them as creative practitioners.

This is a 1.0 credit course where students will produce a body of self-directed works. That work will be conceptually cohesive and display critical thinking with regard to issues in contemporary art. Their work will show an understanding of the potential for drawing as an activity in itself and a related understanding of the potential of the viability of drawing as a "self-contained" activity, distinct from other disciplines and media. Students will be able to discuss their work, and the work of others, while addressing issues arising from contemporary drawing practices.

The self-generated student drawing projects will be supported by a series of seminars examining ideas in contemporary and modern drawing and looking at the work of makers. Performance in seminars will be evaluated, as will student work in midterm and final critiques.

1.3 Timetable

Timetable is subject to change. Please see WebAdvisor for the latest information.

As a result of COVID-19, this class will be remotely delivered. The class will meet once each week for seminars, group discussion of student projects and online drawing workshop activities. The instructor will meet with students in the class individually by appointment to discuss the progress of their work. All students can study in this class entirely online. However, if Public Health and university guidelines allow, there will be limited access to the Alexander Hall Drawing Studio

1.4 Final Exam

Exam time and location is subject to change. Please see WebAdvisor for the latest information.

7.4 Copies of Out-of-class Assignments

Keep paper and/or other reliable back-up copies of all out-of-class assignments: you may be asked to resubmit work at any time.

7.5 Accessibility

The University promotes the full participation of students who experience disabilities in their academic programs. To that end, the provision of academic accommodation is a shared responsibility between the University and the student.

When accommodations are needed, the student is required to first register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS). Documentation to substantiate the existence of a disability is required; however, interim accommodations may be possible while that process is underway.

Accommodations are available for both permanent and temporary disabilities. It should be noted that common illnesses such as a cold or the flu do not constitute a disability.

Use of the SAS Exam Centre requires students to book their exams at least 7 days in advance and not later than the 40th Class Day.

For Guelph students, information can be found on the SAS website

7.6 Academic Integrity

The University of Guelph is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity, and it is the responsibility of all members of the University community-faculty, staff, and students-to be aware of what constitutes academic misconduct and to do as much as possible to prevent academic offences from occurring. University of Guelph students have the responsibility of abiding by the University's policy on academic misconduct regardless of their location of study; faculty, staff, and students have the responsibility of supporting an environment that encourages academic integrity. Students need to remain aware that instructors have access to and the right to use electronic and other means of detection.

Please note: Whether or not a student intended to commit academic misconduct is not relevant for a finding of guilt. Hurried or careless submission of assignments does not excuse students from responsibility for verifying the academic integrity of their work before submitting it. Students who are in any doubt as to whether an action on their part could be construed as an academic offence should consult with a faculty member or faculty advisor.

7.7 Recording of Materials

Presentations that are made in relation to course work - including lectures - cannot be recorded or copied without the permission of the presenter, whether the instructor, a student, or guest lecturer. Material recorded with permission is restricted to use for that course unless further permission is granted.

7.8 Resources

The Academic Calendars are the source of information about the University of Guelph's procedures, policies, and regulations that apply to undergraduate, graduate, and diploma programs.

7.9 Disclaimer

Please note that the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic may necessitate a revision of the format of course offerings and academic schedules. Any such changes will be announced via CourseLink and/or class email. All University-wide decisions will be posted on the COVID-19 website (<https://news.uoguelph.ca/2019-novel-coronavirus-information/>) and circulated by email.

7.10 Illness

The University will not normally require verification of illness (doctor's notes) for fall 2020 or winter 2021 semester courses. However, requests for Academic Consideration may still require medical documentation as appropriate.
