1 Course Details

1.1 Calendar Description

This course focuses on independent work with an emphasis on an experimental use of printmaking media. Students will continue to investigate digital and traditional printmaking methods. There will be greater emphasis on the critical issues relevant to printmaking with attention to clarity of personal statement, originality and professionalism both in studio practice and discussion.

Pre-Requisites: SART*4410
Restrictions: Registration is limited to students registered in the Studio Art Major with an average of 70% in all ARTH and SART course attempts. This is a Priority Access Course. Some restrictions may apply during some time periods.

1.2 Course Description

In this course students will pursue their individual research interests in order to complete a conceptually cohesive body of work using traditional and experimental approaches to printmaking. Students will have the opportunity to expand their technical understanding of previously learned skills, within a framework that encourages experimentation. Studio projects will be self-directed, and progress will be presented during critiques and progress critiques throughout the semester. Students are encouraged to explore experimental modes of printmaking (sculptural print, installation, digital outputs, etc.). Through focused studio practice, image presentations, demonstrations, readings, discussions, exhibition, and critiques students will have ample opportunity for collaboration, reflection, critical analysis, and experiential learning.
The Winter 2021 iteration of Printmaking IV will continue to focus on bringing skills learned during remote courses into the Studio. Students enrolled in this course will build on previously acquired printmaking basics, learn new print techniques, and receive instruction on the use of printing presses and other key pieces of equipment in the studio.

This course will include a combination of in-studio demos and work periods. Some course materials will be supplied in the including plates, ink, and other shared studio materials. Students will be responsible for purchasing other supplies including printmaking paper, drawing tools, tape, etc.

1.3 Timetable

A detailed weekly schedule will be distributed on the first day of class - with dates subject to change on notice.

All deadlines and critique dates will be listed on the course schedule.

1.4 Final Exam

On the last day of classes, there will be a final critique of completed student work.

7 Course Statements

7.1 LAB FEES

A compulsory fee of $200 will be charged for materials provided in support of required course projects. The amount will be invoiced by the Office of the Bursar and paid directly with your tuition payment – no additional payment is necessary.

THE LAB FEE WILL NOT BE REFUNDED AFTER THE THIRD WEEK OF CLASSES. Should you choose to drop this class you will be responsible for returning your course kit at your own expense (in person drop-off or mail) before receiving a refund for your lab fees.

7.2 Facilities

Public Health and University guidelines permit limited access to the assigned studio spaces during and outside of class time. The timetable for such access and the policies for using studio equipment will be distributed during class and on CourseLink. Any decisions regarding access to studios and on campus facilities will be in compliance with those guidelines. The primary purpose will be to ensure the safety of everyone involved.

Printshop rules regarding health, safety, and equipment use will be determined and communicated by Technician Allen Ash. A list of basic protocols will be made available in class and on CourseLink.

8 University Statements

8.1 Email Communication

As per university regulations, all students are required to check their e-mail account regularly: e-mail is the official route of communication between the University and its students.

8.2 When You Cannot Meet a Course Requirement

When you find yourself unable to meet an in-course requirement because of illness or compassionate reasons please advise the course instructor (or designated person, such as a teaching assistant) in writing, with your name, id#, and e-mail contact. The grounds for Academic Consideration are detailed in the Undergraduate and Graduate Calendars.

8.3 Drop Date

Students will have until the last day of classes to drop courses without academic penalty. The deadline to drop two-semester courses will be the last day of classes in the second semester. This applies to all students (undergraduate, graduate and diploma) except for Doctor of Veterinary Medicine and Associate Diploma in Veterinary Technology (conventional and alternative delivery) students. The regulations and procedures for course registration are available in their respective Academic Calendars.
8.4 Copies of Out-of-class Assignments

Keep paper and/or other reliable back-up copies of all out-of-class assignments: you may be asked to resubmit work at any time.

8.5 Accessibility

The University promotes the full participation of students who experience disabilities in their academic programs. To that end, the provision of academic accommodation is a shared responsibility between the University and the student.

When accommodations are needed, the student is required to first register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS). Documentation to substantiate the existence of a disability is required; however, interim accommodations may be possible while that process is underway.

Accommodations are available for both permanent and temporary disabilities. It should be noted that common illnesses such as a cold or the flu do not constitute a disability.

Use of the SAS Exam Centre requires students to book their exams at least 7 days in advance and not later than the 40th Class Day.

For Guelph students, information can be found on the SAS website

For Ridgetown students, information can be found on the Ridgetown SAS website

8.6 Academic Integrity

The University of Guelph is committed to upholding the highest standards of academic integrity, and it is the responsibility of all members of the University community-faculty, staff, and students-to be aware of what constitutes academic misconduct and to do as much as possible to prevent academic offences from occurring. University of Guelph students have the responsibility of abiding by the University’s policy on academic misconduct regardless of their location of study; faculty, staff, and students have the responsibility of supporting an environment that encourages academic integrity. Students need to remain aware that instructors have access to and the right to use electronic and other means of detection.

Please note: Whether or not a student intended to commit academic misconduct is not relevant for a finding of guilt. Hurried or careless submission of assignments does not excuse students from responsibility for verifying the academic integrity of their work before submitting it. Students who are in any doubt as to whether an action on their part could be construed as an academic offence should consult with a faculty member or faculty advisor.

8.7 Recording of Materials Presentations that are made in relation to course work - including lectures - cannot be recorded or copied without the permission of the presenter, whether the instructor, a student, or guest lecturer. Material recorded with permission is restricted to use for that course unless further permission is granted.

8.8 Resources
The Academic Calendars are the source of information about the University of Guelph’s procedures, policies, and regulations that apply to undergraduate, graduate, and diploma programs.

8.9 Disclaimer
Please note that the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic may necessitate a revision of the format of course offerings, changes in classroom protocols, and academic schedules. Any such changes will be announced via CourseLink and/or class email.

This includes on-campus scheduling during the semester, mid-terms and final examination schedules. All University-wide decisions will be posted on the COVID-19 website

8.10 Illness
Medical notes will not normally be required for singular instances of academic consideration, although students may be required to provide supporting documentation for multiple missed assessments or when involving a large part of a course (e.g., final exam or major assignment).
