

Preliminary Web Course Description

*Please note: This is a preliminary web course description only. The department reserves the right to change without notice any information in this description. The final, binding course outline will be distributed in the first class of the semester.

School of English and Theatre Studies

Course Code: THST*1190	Course Title: Theatre Workshop I	Date of Offering: Winter 2021
---------------------------	-------------------------------------	----------------------------------

Course Instructor: Ann Wilson	Course Format: Workshop
----------------------------------	----------------------------

Brief Course Synopsis:

The course provides an introduction to acting including warm-ups, exercises for vocal production, character development, script analysis and scene work.

Methods of Evaluation and Weight:

Notebook recording work of class	50%
Scene Analysis	15%
Scene work	20%
Assignment on Auditioning	15%

Texts and/or Resources Required (e.g. Internet access, specific textbook title, lab kit, etc.)

Other information that you wish to share about the course (optional):

Given that a significant portion of the grade is assigned to recording the work conducted in class, attending class is important. While students will not receive grades merely for attending class, failing to attend will have a detrimental impact on the grades of students in the course.

Work in the class requires that each student wear clothing that does not constrict movement, and appropriate shoes, such as running shoes, that have not been worn outdoors.